Laurie Hession beside the original Hession family slab home at Nelson

SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY - LAURIE HESSION

The Hills District Historical Society Museum holds a treasure trove of interesting books, articles, artifacts, journals, furniture, family histories and so many other interesting things. Whilst there I purchased a few books about the Hills to Hawkesbury area. The Society have given permission for some of these stories to be reproduced, so here is the first snippet from a book entitled, Heart of the Hills, compiled by Elizabeth Porter.

Service to the Community. Laurie Hession was born in 1923 at Nelson where he lived all his life. His ancestors were amongst the pioneering families of the district. The original slab family home was built in the 1850's. He attended Rouse Hill Public School, then later worked on his father's poultry farm. At age 20 he enlisted in the Army and served in New Guinea. He married Daphne Vaughan from Pitt Town in 1950 and they had 4 children. He lived through the 1939 bushfires and then went on to form the Bush Fire Brigade at Nelson where he served for 60 years. He was a tireless community member and was recognised for all his efforts in 1986 when he was awarded a Community Service Award. Laurie passed away in 2004, but was posthumously awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia in 2005. You can read the full story in Heart of the Hills which is available for purchase through The Hills District Historical Society Inc, www.thehillsdistricthistoricalsociety.com. You can also visit the Museum at Building 10, William Thompson Masonic School, Balcombe Heights Estate. The museum is open on 1st and 3rd Saturday of every month, 12pm to 4pm.

Paramedics On Train Stations

On the one hand at premium stations, paramedics are now on duty during the morning and afternoon peak periods. I think this is a good idea. I wonder if these paramedics have been put into the budget for future years and not just an election stunt?

On the other hand, have the paramedics been placed, where the need is the greatest and not just in marginal seats? The two recent past Liberal former Victorian Governments put police guards (protection service officers), where they were most needed like at Westall train station (the area where allegedly an UFO landed at Westall Primary School). The seats there were safe Labor seats.

If it had not been for some unforeseen circumstances. It was likely the Victorian Liberals would have increased their numbers in the Victorian Parliament.

The NSW Liberals have shown they can get things done, but they have become like Bob Carr, only see NSW as being Newcastle, Sydney and Wollongong. Even in Newcastle, where cities over the world are putting back heavy and light rail, the NSW Liberals have lost the plot by getting rid of the CBD train stations. The proposed mega projects in Sydney like the M5 extension, the inner city freeways and some others also shows that the NSW Liberals are not governing for the whole state. These projects will starve the rest of the state for infrastructure finances.

The alternate rail route over, or through, the Blue Mountains is needed. Some train people say a fast train could go from Sydney to Melbourne with Richmond the stop for Sydney.

I saw the need for the second train route over, or through, the Mountains when I lived in the Blue Mountains at the time when the tree at Medlow Bath quashed a train carriage. I think it was at that time a high ranking Liberal was advocating such a construction project.

The Duke of Edinburgh Award

Peter Issacson was a newspaper editor and had his own media company. In the book Pathfinder: the Peter Issacson Story it mentioned that as one of the heads of the Airforce Cadets, he recommended that the Airforce Cadets should be involved in Gliders and be part of the Duke of Edinburgh Award. Fortunately the second recommendation was adopted and also the Navy Cadets and the Army Cadets are involved now in the scheme.

At one stage in NSW there was no scheme for youth which the NSW Department of Welfare was involved in before youth offenders. When in the 1970's it came the NSW Department of Youth and Community Services The Duke of Edinburgh Scheme was the only programme which involved youth who were not necessary offenders.

The Duke of Edinburgh Scheme was strongly supported by Sir Eric Willis, the member for Earlwood before he became Premier. It is my understanding that the next member for Earlwood (who I stood against twice) also was a supporter of this scheme.

So I supported Tony Abbott giving an Award to the Duke. One must remember that it was Gough Whitlam that made the Queen, the Queen of Australia. Obviously of course I am biased as the Duke himself did give me the Gold Award of his scheme. I did my award through School cadets.

My copy of the above book I gave to the Surrey Hills, Victoria, Airforce Cadets along with many other things from me and from the estate of a foundation member of the Bruce Branch of the Australian Democrats

-Review by Steve Bingle

Stephen Bingle is a former candidate twice for the State Seat of Earlwood. An awardee also of both the Silver and the Gold Awards of the Duke of Edinburgh Scheme.

Peacock Spider (Maratus volans)

The photo is a male Peacock Spider (Maratus volans) in full courtship display. These beautifully colored spiders are incredibly small (measuring just 4mm long), are native to Australia and can be found in the Hills to Hawkesbury area living in nature reserves.

By far, the most amazing thing about the Peacock Spider Family, is their courtship display. When the male sees a female spider (not at all colorful like the male), he extends his third pair of legs (marked with bright white socks) and waves them to get her attention.

If she shows interest, he raises his abdomen (which has two vividly colored flaps) and extends the flaps out, just like a peacock fanning its tail. He then tries to impress her with a hypnotic dance, moving left and right legs still waving, shaking his abdomen like a fan dancer.

It is truly an amazing sight!

Here is a link to a video I recorded of the special if you are interested.

Public to report on litterbugs, EPA fines from 1 March

For the first time in NSW, fines for littering from vehicles can be issued based on reports from the public.

Environment Minister Rob Stokes has announced a new reporting system for littering offences is now up and running.

According to the Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford, littering from vehicles is a major problem.

"Litterbugs will think twice if anyone in the street can report them for a fine."

The EPA will commence issuing penalty notices from 1 March 2015.

Reports must be made using either the new portal on the EPA website or the upgraded Report to EPA mobile app which is downloadable at <http://www.epa.nsw.gov.au/litter/from-vehicle.htm> from February 1.

All reports will undergo a verification process before a fine is issued, and a person who reports (must be aged 18+) may need to provide evidence in court. Motorists are advised not to use mobile phones illegally, or act dangerously to catch someone in the act.

Reports must be made within 14 days of the incident and must include a range of information including car registration and description, date, time, location and the type of littered item where possible.

Fines for littering from a vehicle range from $250 for an individual, $500 for a corporation, to $900 for aggravated littering such as lit cigarette butts during extreme conditions.

For more information visit the EPA website: www.epa.nsw.gov.au/litter/index.htm

How Did John Macarthur Escape Execution?

John Macarthur led a troubled life conflicting with many people. He had business dealings with Joseph Foveaux who was born in England in 1765 and came to Sydney in 1792 as an army officer in the New South Wales Corp. Foveaux received a 300 acre land grant west of Parramatta and grazed over 600 sheep, built up from Merino stock purchased from Captain Waterhouse in 1797. Foveaux was sent to Norfolk Island to be the lieutenant-governor by Governor King in 1800 and this prompted him to sell his land holdings to John Macarthur. Elizabeth Macarthur was left to manage her husband's properties when John was sent to England to face trial for shooting his commanding officer, Colonel William Paterson, in a duel in September 1801. Elizabeth called the property

▶ Bella Vista House

“my Seven Hills Farm” and focused on breeding sheep producing fine quality wool. The Macarthurs returned the Seven Hills Farm land along with properties in Parramatta and Carlingford area to the Government in 1821 in exchange for 5000 acres at the Cowpastures, south of Parramatta.

William Pearce purchased acreage of the Macarthur farmland and named it Bella Vista in 1842.

You can now visit the Bella Vista Farm which is a rare example of an intact rural landscape and cherished by the citizens of The Hills Shire. The two storey homestead is at the centre of the State Heritage inventory including a Blacksmith Hut, Stables and Feed Shed, Cow Shed, Bails, Dairy, Aviary and Wool Shed.

Open day: First Sunday of the Month 9am to 2pm, with Free entry to the park.

You will hear many more stories of the Macarthur family during a guided tour of Hambledon Cottage, Gregory Pace, Parramatta. Open every Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 11am to 4pm. Group tours available daily by appointment. Telephone 9635-6924. Visit website www.parramattahistorical.org.au

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by Ray Williams, Member for Hawkesbury

the NSW Government for brand-new buses to replace older vehicles.

The NSW Liberals & Nationals have introduced more than 10,500 extra weekly train, bus and ferry services since coming to government – including more than 2,800 extra weekly bus services in Sydney's north west. Whether it's delivering major transport infrastructure projects for the future like the North West Rail Link or providing the extra services customers need today – the NSW Government is transforming public transport in Sydney's north west.

New bus services in the north west starting this weekend include:

- An extra 27 weekly trips on Route 603 covering Glenhaven, Castle Hill and Parramatta. Buses will now pick up and drop off customers at Rouse Hill town centre and serve the growing residential areas around Hezlett Road in Kellyville.
- An extra 25 weekly trips on Route 602X from Rouse Hill to North Sydney
- An extra 10 weekly trips on Route 612X from Kellyville to Milsons Point

The community is now able to choose from 2,700 extra bus services every week and I expect this number to keep growing as more people move into the area. We have delivered extra services, new modern comfortable vehicles, double-decker buses and the Opal card to improve public transport in NSW and bring it into the 21st century. Timetable information for the new services and minor timetable changes for other bus services starting next week can be found at www.transportnsw.info.

REBUILDING NSW- FOR THE FUTURE

In June 2014, the Government announced Rebuilding NSW – a plan to invest $20 billion in new productive infrastructure, including a second Harbour rail crossing and a third Harbour road crossing. It is a plan that will create more than 100,000 jobs and deliver downward pressure on electricity prices for consumers. It is a plan that will boost the economy by almost $300 billion in just over 20 years. Releasing capital from leasing 49% of the State's electricity businesses means projects that improve our quality of life can get moving now, rather than years into the future. This Strategy highlights the importance of sustaining productivity growth in our major centres and our regional communities, as well as supporting population growth. Already, congestion costs Sydney $5 billion per annum and this will grow to $8 billion per annum by 2020 if nothing is done. Rebuilding NSW tackles this head-on as our community and economy grow. Ensuring NSW residents have the best in water, transport, education, health, sports and arts infrastructure.

Rebuilding NSW will:

- Reserve $1.1 billion to invest in the WestConnex northern and southern extensions, and the Western Harbour Tunnel.
- Reserve $7 billion for Sydney Rapid Transit, to fully fund a second Harbour rail crossing.
- Recognise the importance of sporting and cultural assets by increasing the commitment of a Sports and Cultural Fund from $500 million to $1.2 billion, capitalising on our existing iconic assets and precincts, and increasing the presence of facilities in Western Sydney.

- Reserve an even greater investment in regional transport of $4.1 billion, to underpin economic growth across the whole State.
- Reserve $1 billion for regional and metropolitan schools.
- Reserve $1 billion for regional and metropolitan hospitals.
- Reserve $1 billion for water security for our regional communities.
- Reserve $300 million for regional tourism and the environment.

This investment is possible only by recycling capital from our leased electricity network businesses. The Government is committed to a transaction that puts the public's interests first and ensures consumers are protected.

$100 MILLION FOR NEW BUSES AND SERVICES TO ROUSE HILL

I am pleased to announce a number of bus routes in the North West will get a boost in frequency and the popular route 603 will be extended to pick up and drop off customers at Rouse Hill Town Centre and growing residential areas around Kellyville. The new bus services will benefit customers living and working in and around Rouse Hill, Kellyville, Glenhaven, Castle Hill, Parramatta, North Sydney and Milsons Point. The extra services have been made possible thanks to a $92 million investment by Poor little Dougal found himself unwanted in a pound. He is the most delightful little man, a lovely little approximately 2 to 3 year old Dachshund x Maltese. Dougal is the most very affectionate little dog and really enjoys getting and giving cuddles. His gorgeous face just melts your heart when he looks at you and he will give someone a lot of love and pleasure. He does like being with his owner and doesn't like it when he is left behind. His foster carer has a small dog and Dougal likes puppy playing with him. Dougal does bark at cats when he is walking past them. He would make a great pet for a family with children (but not too young). His hair does grow quite long so he will need some clipping in hot weather, the photo is before we had him clipped off as he was very matted. If you think Dougal could very well be part of your family then please contact us. He is located at Shell Cove in the Wollongong area.

Breed: Maltese x Dachshund | male | Estimated Age: 2 years and 6 months | Size: Small | Adoption Price: $350.00 | Location: Shell Cove 2529 | Contact: Anne | Mobile: 0421 336 267 | Email: judy@dchanimalrescue.org.au | Website: dchanimaladoptions.com.au

Travelling through Dural recently I called into “The Pines” on Old Northern Rd. This property was once the home of an old mate, Clive Roughley and now owned by the Hills Shire Council and brings back many memories for myself and hopefully for some of you.

My first encounter with “The Pines” was as a foundation member of the group that started “Jazz At The Pines”. Lisa Pegler, wife of the entertainer James Pegler (more about James in a future column) together with Jennifer Touzel, who was a former Editor of this magazine, when it was known as “The Hills TV Magazine”, my wife and a couple of others met at the Tourist Information Centre located at “The Pines” with a view of creating something that would draw attention to the various tourist activities of the district, hence the creation of “Jazz at the Pines” with the support of Clive Roughley.

Now Clive as many would know, was a great character. He was known throughout the district as the “Honey and Egg Man”. He lived alone in the cottage, a home in which he had been born and lived all his life. He would talk of days gone by when it would take a week to transport goods to Sydney from Dural. He would talk about his award winning chooks. He would also talk to me about current events, his opinions on various politicians and celebrities, some favourable and some not so. A tour of his cottage was always a option, visiting his childhood bedroom upstairs with views out towards the distant Blue Mountains was always a joy.

The property had been subdivided a number of times over the years that it had been in the Roughley family and was greatly reduced in size. I noticed on my recent visit that it had been reduced even more since Clive’s death with the back paddock that had contained the chook shed and some of the old farm machinery, having been sold off or perhaps it may have been sold prior to his death. I do remember that it was used as an overflow car park for patrons of the “Jazz at the Pines” event and often was filled to capacity.

Clive became known as the “Honey & Egg Man” as he sold both from a shed in his backyard. My wife and I would supply Clive with egg cartons for the eggs and he would supply us with jar after jar of delicious honey. Our grandson as a very young boy enjoyed visiting “Uncle Clive” as he called him and climbing on the rusty old tractor out the back of his home. Selling produce such as Clive did however, came with risks. On more than a few occasions he would be attacked and robbed of his takings. He had a faithful old dog that he named “Sally” to help protect him. Once “Sally” had passed on, a local policeman gave Clive another dog which he called “P.C.” in honour of the Police Constable who had supplied the dog. I recall calling at the back door of “The Pines” on one occasion not long after Clive had been robbed and being greeted at the door with Clive wielding a piece of 4 x 2 block of wood. Naturally as he had aged his eyesight was not as good as it was when he was much younger. It was not until I spoke and he had adjusted his glasses that he put the block of wood down. It seemed that it was not that much later when he passed away. He had virtually given his home to the Hills Shire Council to be maintained as a virtual museum having sold it to the council for the princely sum of $1.

Now what memories do you have of time in the Hills to Hawkesbury area? What of your school days or shopping trips with mum and dad? Where did you go and what did you see?

Ah the memories. If you have memories or photos to share with this column you can send them to Hills.memories@groups.facebook.com Readers can also share memories and photos on facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/Hills.memories/> Where you will also find quite a few photos and memories posted by other members of the Hills District Memories group.

The caricature at the top is one drawn by Mick Joffe of Galston back in 1999 of myself.

Riverside Theatres Presents
Packemin Productions
The Phantom Of The Opera

From the creative team responsible for the hit productions of Beauty and the Beast, Annie and Hairspray comes the most successful stage musical of all time, The Phantom of the Opera. The new production stars Ben Mingay (Wonderland, Packed to the Rafters, Jersey Boys, Dirty Dancing) as The Phantom, Johanna Allen (Wicked, Dr Zhivago, The Pirates of Penzance) as Carlotta and Erin Clare (Snow White) as Christine.

Far beneath the majesty and splendour of the Paris Opera House, hides the masked figure of The Phantom in a shadowy existence. Shamed by his physical appearance and feared by all, he falls madly in love with an innocent young soprano, Christine, and devotes himself to creating a new star by nurturing her extraordinary talents and by employing all of the devious methods at his command.

Andrew Lloyd Webber's mesmerising score includes The Music of the Night, All I Ask Of You, Wishing You Were Somehow Here Again and the title song The Phantom of the Opera. Jaw-dropping scenery, dazzling costumes and breathtaking special effects magically combine to bring this tragic love story to life each night. Don't miss it!

Judith Lucy Is All Woman
Wednesday, 11 February 2015 - 9:00pm
New Series

#ourABC

After her much-loved ABC series Judith Lucy's Spiritual Journey, one of Australia's favourite funny ladies is back with JUDITH LUCY IS ALL WOMAN. If you've ever been a woman, been in one, or come out of one, this six-part series is for you. It's a timely exploration of where women are at in modern Australia - and what that means for men - told from the unique perspective of someone who's been a woman for most of her life.

From the outback to the city, Judith jumps head-first into sex, showbiz, politics, families, cougars, cosmetic surgery and careers, and chats to people from all walks of life, from all over the country, as she tries to work out if the battle of the sexes is still in progress and if so, who is winning?

Featuring special appearances from Denise Scott, Mick Molloy, Alan Davies, Julie Bishop, Anna Bligh, Annabel Crabb, Kaz Cooke, Deborah Hutton, Adam Goodes, Deborah Conway, Ella Hooper, Justine Clarke and a host of inspirational, unusual, outrageous and interesting Australian women. And men. And children. And a freaky robotic baby.

In the first episode, Judith rigs up a rubber penis and hits her local watering hole disguised as a man in an attempt to understand if what's in your pants determines your success. She catches up with her old friend, comedian Alan Davies, and talks to White Ribbon Ambassadors - AFL star Adam Goodes and NRL star Clint Newton as well as transgender men Jez Pez and Buck Angel.

She also discusses the 'F' word: what is it about the word feminism that gets so many people hot under the collar? Judith takes on outspoken American musician Amanda Palmer in a few rounds of Feminist Jelly Wrestling.

The wait is over. The second series of Broadchurch, the critically-acclaimed and multi award-winning British drama series starts on ABC TV on Sunday, February 15 at 8.30pm.

David Tennant returns as DI Alec Hardy and Olivia Colman (who won a BAFTA for her role in the first series) reprises her role as DS Ellie Miller, last seen having her life torn apart as her husband, Joe, confessed to murdering local schoolboy Danny Latimer in the seaside town.

Jodie Whittaker and Andrew Buchan, who play Danny's parents Beth and Mark Latimer, also return to their roles, alongside Arthur Darvill as vicar Paul Coates, Carolyn Pickles as newspaper editor Maggie Radcliffe, and Simone McAulley as hotel manager Becca Fisher.

Series 2 also stars legendary Emmy-nominated British film and television actress Charlotte Rampling; Academy award, BAFTA and Golden Globe nominee Marianne Jean-Baptiste, James D'Arcy (Hitchcock), Eve Myles (Torchwood) and Phoebe Waller-Bridge (Bad Education).

The first series saw the murder of 11-year-old Danny Latimer rock the small Dorset town of Broadchurch. DI Alec Hardy (Tennant) - still haunted by the collapse of a previous murder investigation - was put in charge of the case, much to the chagrin of local officer DS Ellie Miller (Colman). Their investigation saw many townspeople come under suspicion, including Danny's father Mark (Buchan), but after many twists and turns, the revelation of the killer's identity had far-reaching consequences, not least for the two detectives. The end is where it begins...

WWII Air Crash Detectives
Wednesday, 11 February at 8.30pm (6-part series)
**New Episode** Documentary

From 1939 to 1945 thousands of young airmen met terrible ends not at the hands the enemy's machine guns or because of the murderous flak of anti-aircraft fire, but in catastrophic accidents and training crashes.

Incredibly, these incidents accounted for the lives of over 8000 men, almost percent of all RAF Bomber Command's fatalities during the War.

But those brave men should not be a footnote in military history. Researchers have spent years investigating, uncovering, searching, probing and digging the crash sites - and there are hundreds of them.

They are the WWII Air Crash Investigators and now, for the first time, they have agreed to let us join them.

Episode Five: Sikorski's Last Flight

4 July 1943 - 11:07pm: A plane takes off carrying General Władysław Sikorski, Prime Minister of Poland's London-based government in exile and Commander-in-Chief of its armed forces, returning from visiting Polish troops in the Middle East. On take-off, the aircraft suddenly loses height and crashes into the harbour. The 62-year-old Polish general is killed, along with 15 others. The sole survivor is the Czech-born pilot, Eduard Prchal, who is rescued by an RAF launch. The bodies of five passengers and crew, including Sikorski's daughter, are never found. Many questions remain unanswered, raising suspicions that this crash may not have been an accident, and rather an assassination. This programme pieces together the events of that night, the cause of the crash and examines the murky world of WWII international espionage and the case for an assassination.

Mammon
Tuesday, 17 February at 9.30pm (6-Part Series)
**New Series Premiere** Drama

Mammon, a New Testament term referring to greed. In this brand new gripping Norwegian thriller series, two brothers are pitted against each other in the worlds of politics, media and high finance. In this story, not all journalists are good, and the hunt for truth far more personal.

Episode One: The Victim

Peter Veras is an uncompromising journalist working for Norway's most respected newspaper. While pursuing the story of a scandal in the financial world, he gets hold of crushing evidence against his own brother from an anonymous source. He makes the biggest mistake in his life when he has the story published. Peter cannot prevent his brother from committing suicide, shattering the lives of Peter's sister-in-law Eva and 16-year-old nephew Andreas. In a feverish attempt to track down the anonymous source, Peter is finally successful, but the discovery is devastating: the source was his own brother.

Story Club
Wednesday, 11 February 2015
10:00pm

Story Club is a comedy show with a difference. Think stand-up, but sitting down. Then add a narrative. Sophisticated and hilarious, Story Club brings together Australia's finest raconteurs - including stand-up comics, novelists, journalists, commentators, poets and musicians - to create an event that is both funny and unexpected. Hand-picked from the live event of the same name, each episode of Story Club features two stories that are sometimes alarming and ultimately revealing - but are always entertaining and always true.

Created by Zoë Norton Lodge and Ben Jenkins and held at the Giant Dwarf Theatre, the live event is a themed storytelling night where some of Australia's best storytellers gather in front of an audience to reveal their funniest stories, darkest moments and their shameful secrets, all while sitting in a stupidly ornate chair and reading from an awkwardly large book.

During series one, the storytellers will share stories about coming out, staging one's own death, mistaken identity and accidental assault, cousin love, what it means to be Australia's favourite bastard and what happens when you revisit your travel diaries from 50 years ago.

As well as stories about drunken Santas and fraudulent Jamie Olivers, there are tales of sexy mishaps with cleaners, terrifyingly experimental coppers, grandmas with axes to grind and geriatrics arm wrestling for beer.

The stories are vulnerable, they're confronting and they're damn funny.

Episode six: Wednesday, February 11 at 10.00pm

Can you have sex with your cousin? Rob Carlton provides a compelling answer; and Mark Sutton finds that not all muggers are the same.

The Paedophile Hunter
Wednesday, 18 February 2015
9:30pm

This one-off observational documentary follows controversial online vigilante Stinson Hunter and his associates, who pose as underage children on social networking sites in order to identify and draw out men they assert have paedophilic predilections.

Self-styled 'undercover journalist' Hunter and his team engage men in conversation online on 18+ sites, whilst pretending to be children, then lure them into meeting. The unsuspecting men arrive at the predetermined address to be confronted by Hunter. He and his team show the 'mark' the evidence of their online, text and phone conversations and film the ensuing interrogation. Hunter informs the men he will hand this file to the police, and he will post the confrontation and evidence online.

Multiple Bafta-winning Director Dan Reed (Terror in Mumbai, Legally High) captures the 'catches' from Hunter's initial introductions online through to the final confrontations. In this extraordinary documentary, Reed explores the shocking scale of the problem of online grooming and the complex relationship between the vigilantes, the police and people who use social network sites to groom underage children. He also looks into Hunter's troubled past and his motivation for catching sexual predators, challenging him on his actions which can have devastating consequences for the men when he posts videos of them online.

All New The Block Triple Threat, Monday, February 9
Episode 9 – The Triple Threat Arrives At 7.30Pm

They may think that six becoming three is the actual Triple Threat, but it's not that straightforward. They will be going head-to-head with three seasoned Blockhead teams – chosen from the All Stars of 2013. But the heat will be on the All Stars, as only one of their teams will survive after producing rooms in week one.

THE WAY WE USED TO BE

ALLEGRO'S COLUMN

Please send news and comments to "Allegro", P.O. Box D157, Dural 2158

Seen on a bumper sticker in Castle Hill last week . . . "I love my country, but I fear my government".

This column is not alone in its comments on the infuriating variations in fuel prices. John Tingle on Radio 2CH had some caustic comments on the same subject. It certainly is frustrating when you fill your tank at 72.9c a litre and the very next day the price drops to 63.9c! That's a whopping 9c a litre difference. Why do governments permit this anomaly to continue? Although we do not want price fixing to return, surely there must be a way for us to obtain our necessary petrol at the lower rate, all the time. It is not the fault of the service stations. The blame rests solely with the oil companies. An article in the Saturday Morning Herald points out that in Bourke the price is 82c a litre and transport costs to that far region are no more than 4c a litre. Make you wonder?

Incidentally, the price of the Saturday Morning Herald has risen by 20c to $1.20! And inflation is a mere 2% to 3%! Many years ago a friend from New York told us that the Sunday papers in that city were $1 and consisted of 500 pages! We thought then, that the price was exorbitant and how did anyone read 500 pages of a paper on a Sunday? Price of our Sunday papers then was only 10c. Like our Saturday paper, people only read the sections that are of interest to them.

Ruby Ramm, in her book, "Life at Landsdale", mentions that the family had a shed facing the Wisemans Ferry-Windsor Road at Maroota. This shed served many purposes. At weekends it was used as a shop selling fruit from the orchard, sweets, cigarettes, etc., and occasionally it was used as temporary accommodation for visiting relatives. Then it was a meeting place for various church services. During the Depression in the early 1930s it served as a paying office for relief workers. Mrs. Ramm relates one amusing incident . . . One night a thief broke into the shop and stole cigarettes, plus a dozen eggs. The thief must have been disappointed as the eggs were a setting to put under a "clucky" hen and thus were not fresh! Opposite the shed was cleared ground which was used on Sundays as a picnic area for travellers. A sign was tied to a gumtree which read . . . "Hot water, soft drinks and cigarettes". The sign "Hot Water" is rarely seen by the roadside these days. Most folks out for a picnic on Sundays would have made tea for lunch, but oddly, the sign never did read "Boiling Water". Have motorists become so sophisticated these days that no-one makes tea by the roadside anymore? Does everyone carry a thermos flask?

For many years the late Ray Price was the doyen of all the jazz enthusiasts in the Sydney area. Ray's Port Jackson Jazz Band was known throughout the country. The enthusiasm shown by the Port Jackson Jazz Band has rubbed off on Tony Coward and the Peoria Jazz Band, a local group which has gained popularity with its "Jazz At The Pines". Now the band is giving regular concerts at the Dural Soldiers' Memorial Hall in Old Northern Road. The next date will be the night of Friday, November 5. Don't miss this great night of music and fun. Plenty of room to dance if your feet keep tapping to the music.

Mention of the late Ray Price, who only died a few years ago, brings a wave of nostalgia to me. In 1941, Ray and I were both in camp at Myambat, near Denman. Ray was only very young then and always had his beloved banjo with him in camp. As the war progressed, we both were posted in different directions and I did not see Ray again until after the war. He was a humorist and invoked many amusing incidents in the Army camp. Incidentally, Ray's brother was leading violinist with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra for many years.

Remember the unfortunate lady who was inadvertently locked in the toilet cubicle at Royal North Shore Hospital? When we last wrote of her predicament, workmen were busy passing screwdrivers under the door so she could (if possible) unscrew the lock. Further enquiries revealed that she WAS a good carpenter. She managed to unscrew the lock and a very relieved, but perturbed, lady emerged after a harrowing experience. N.B.: The locks on the cubicles have since been changed.

Our Prime Minister appears to be hell-bent on changing our flag and changing our Constitution to a Republic. Most people to whom I have spoken want our flag unchanged and the present system to remain as it is. Recent polls vary as to the peoples' choice. Not that polls can be sure guides to peoples' intentions. Our country allows "freedom of choice". Would a new Constitution do likewise?

If Paul Keating does change our national flag, how is he going to change the minds of SIX State Governments? Six out of seven Australian States have the Union Jack in the top corner of their flags. The exception is the Northern Territory which, of course, was the last State proclaimed. Each State has its own emblem on the flag as well and each State has its own coat of arms and its own words underneath. For instance, N.S.W. has the red George Cross, in which is a lion. The coat of arms portrays a rampant lion and a kangaroo and the Latin term "Orta Recens, Quam, Pura Nites" (can anyone put that into English?) and NEW SOUTH WALES printed underneath. Victoria has the Union Jack with a Crown and the stars of the Southern Cross and the Royal Crown. No Latin for Victoria, just "Peace and Prosperity".

Queensland has the Union Jack, the Cross of St. Andrew and the Latin phrase "Audax At Fidelis" . . . South Australia has the Union Jack and a wedge-tailed eagle, no message . . . Western Australia has the Union Jack and a black swan, no message . . . Tasmania has the Union Jack and a red lion and the Latin phrase "Ubertas, ET, Fidelitas". The Northern Territory is the odd one out. It has the Southern Cross on a black background and what appears to be an Aboriginal motif on a red background. Their coat of arms has two kangaroos holding up a platform of an eagle and underneath, Aboriginal sketches. No phrase.

Each local council and city has its own badge or coat of arms. Do you know what your own council's is?

An error in typing my copy recently (my error) may have given readers the impression that a recent trip to Canoelands was my first. NOT SO! My first visit to Canoelands was in 1953 and my wife and I have travelled the road many times since then. At first the road was all gravel and it was at that time that I first met Ron and John Christie's mother and father, the late Gladys and Cecil Christie. In the 1950s and early 60s they and their family ran a large and very busy mixed orchard. The late Cecil Christie was a Shetland Islander and when I first met him in 1953, he grew the largest and best Valencia oranges I had (or have) seen. And the price then? 6d (sixpence) each. Now an old antagonist from Canoelands derides me for spelling "dilettante" incorrectly in the "Scarlet Pimpernel" story. Returning the favour (sic), "Pimpernel" is spelt with one L, not two! Could that be just a ruse from my learned friend(?) to elicit a reply? Or just a mistake? Perish the thought!

FEBRUARY GARDENING

Although the calendar says it's the end of summer, February often exhibits extreme heat and dry conditions making it stressful for gardens and gardeners alike.

Vegies to sow in February

If the thought of growing or eating turnips makes you curl up your nose, then think again! Japanese Turnip 'Hakurei' is a beautiful white skinned turnip, and harvested when fresh and young is a delicious addition to soups, stir fries, salads and is yummy roasted whole. It grows easily in full sun, sown directly where you want them to grow. Cover seeds with a little Yates Seed Raising Mix and keep moist. Expect to harvest your crop in 6-10 weeks.

Reviving Trims

Trim back faded or leggy summer annuals like petunia, "calibrachoa or annual salvia, then feed with Thrive Roses and Flowers Liquid Plant Food. This stimulates new growth and extends the flowering season right into autumn.

Heat and humidity can take a toll on roses, but it's not too late for a reviving summer prune. Don't be too fussy, just shear off 30-40% of overall growth including spent flower stems. Feed with Yates Dynamic Lifter, water deeply and 6 weeks later you'll be rewarded with fabulous autumn blooms.

February Pest Watch

Lawn army worm are active in late summer and autumn and heavy infestations can destroy your lawn. Lawn army worm are brown to green striped caterpillars, which travel en mass, eating leaves and stems of the lawn, literally overnight. You may notice the lawn looking thinner, patchy and discolored. These caterpillars feed at night and shelter during the day so they are hard to spot. Treat with Yates Complete Lawn Insect Control and monitor regularly as the life cycle of these pests is only 10-14 days. Once the lawn begins to grow again, apply Yates Dynamic Lifter Lawn Food to bring the lawn back to its former lush green.

Citrus

Citrus trees are carrying their winter crops now so it's important to keep them well watered and well fed. Dynamic Lifter

PLUS Fruit Food is great for feeding citrus and other fruiting plants and the chicken manure formulation helps improve soil structure too. Potted citrus can be fertilised fortnightly using a liquid plant food such as Thrive Citrus Liquid Plant Food.

Silvery, wiggly trails on your citrus leaves indicate citrus leaf miner damage (pictured above). These tiny burrowing insect larvae prefer soft new growth so the damage is often first noticed on the new leaves and foliage may also be twisted and distorted. Trim off the damaged leaves and spray regularly with PestOil to protect new foliage. As this insect prefers to deposit its larvae on soft young foliage, timing citrus feeds in late winter (August) helps as foliage has a chance to harden off by summer.

Flowers to sow in February – Iceland Poppy

Iceland Poppy with such a cool name, what better flower to look forward to in late winter and spring. Although they don't come from Iceland, they do like cool winters to flower well. Fat furry buds open to reveal crepe-paper like blooms of gold, lemon, apricot and salmon held on tall stems, perfect for garden colour and lovely in a vase. The rosettes of dark green leaves are ideal for disguising fading bulb foliage, so grow them in conjunction with your favourite spring bulbs. Sow poppies directly into the garden, or alternately in trays and transplant when seedlings are 10cm high.

Bulb Prep

Prepare for planting spring bulbs by digging plenty of organic matter, compost, manure or Dynamic Lifter into the soil. Store the bulbs in a cool place (or the crisper of the refrigerator) and delay planting until autumn (April or May) when the weather and soil has cooled down.

PLANT OF THE MONTH – IVORY CURL

Buckinghamia celsissima or Ivory Curl is a fast growing, rewarding small tree, and its dense dark green foliage makes it ideal for privacy and hedging too. Elegant spires of ivory flowers smother the ends of the branches from mid-summer to autumn. Nectar rich and sweetly fragrant, the blooms are a magnet for birds and insects. Preferring areas with mild winters, it reaches around 8m (although more in its native habitat) and likes well drained soil with plenty of added organics. Fertilise with Yates Professional Blood and Bone in spring and autumn.

The Hills Branch Of The Ulysses Motorcycle Club Is On The Move

Many residents of the Hills District would be familiar with the group of motorcyclist who meet each Saturday morning for its weekly social gathering at Joe's Deli & R Corner Kebab Cafe' (formerly Pirate Pete's) on Old Northern Road, Round Corner Dural. We are the Hills Branch of the Ulysses Club Inc.

In January 2015 our Branch will be relocating to Vespa Cafe' on Annangrove Road, Annangrove. After 12 years the Club has become a well known "Icon" in the district. Often when locals hear you ride a motorbike they ask 'do you belong to that group at Round Corner'. It is with much regret that we are undertaking this move as the owners of Joe's Deli & R. Corner Kebab have made us very welcome as was the case with the original Peter Maitt of Pirate Pete's. We are confident our good reputation and knowledge of us by the community will continue at Annangrove Road.

Over the 12 years the Hills Branch has been meeting at this site & its numbers are constantly increasing as is the population of the area. Traffic has also increased making parking & manoeuvring more difficult.

The Ulysses Hills Branch is part of a National & International Club which was founded in 1983 for mature aged riders who share a deep passion for motorcycling and come from a wide variety of professions and riding all brands and types of motorbikes. Whether it be a cruiser, sports bike, tourer or scooter we have a variety of rides suitable for all. We actively encourage both male and female riders along with their partners who are always welcome and in fact the female members have gone from strength to strength many having gained their own licence offering an excellent balance to a traditionally male orientated interest.

Eleven residents of the Hills District who were active members of the Sydney Branch of Ulysses received approval to form the Hills Branch in 2001 with the initial formal gathering held in 2002. Since then the Branch has grown rapidly and members come from a very large radius of Dural, from Greystanes, Blacktown, Hills, Carlingford, Mt Kuringai & Northern Beaches. We also raise funds for Charities, our main Charity being the Arthritis Research Foundation and also Cancer & Depression.

The Hills Branch of the Ulysses Club meets every third Wednesday of the month at Castle Hill RSL at 7.30 for their General Meeting. Potential members need to be 40 plus and hold a motorbike licence. All Welcome.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
