FLOODING AFFECTS THOUSANDS OF RESIDENTS

While the rain may have mostly stopped, there is still large amounts of water around, particularly in the Hunter area.

Remember - never drive through flood waters. Your safety is much more important than getting to your destination on time.

Weiling Natural Therapy Classical Acupuncture

Peter is a 40 year old builder. He does a lot of physical outdoor work, carrying heavy materials and up and down on building sites. As time went by he found his muscles becoming tighter and more stiff from the demands of his work. One morning he couldn't get up. His back was too painful. His wife brought him in to our clinic. He was sweating, moving slowly, his face was pale. Identifying his condition using classical Chinese pulse diagnosis, I performed a one hour acupuncture session. He could move much easier, with pain already 50% gone.

After 4 acupuncture sessions his problems were completely gone. Since then Peter has been coming in for regular maintenance, keeping himself in optimum condition.

Linda is a 25 year old hospital nurse who works 10 to 12 hours a day. She is always tired after work. Recently she found herself becoming moody and agitated before her period, which was painful, irregular and light. Her tongue was pale, pulse thin and wiry. We administered warm acupuncture treatment combined with blood nourishment and blood movement Chinese herbs for two months. Her period is back to normal and pain free. She has more energy and handles work stress much more easily.

Acupuncture and Chinese medicine have existed in China as major medical treatments for more than 2000 years. They can treat a broad range of problems without drugs and the corresponding side effects. They promote the body to heal itself - muscle and joint problems, as well as systemic disorders and chronic conditions that western medicine finds difficult to resolve.

Chinese medicine principles have a holistic approach to health care, and are more respectful to the body needs.

Our aim is to have more people benefit from this ancient medicinal art and pass on the experience and knowledge to others.

Tackling Domestic Violence in the Sydney Hills

Council has teamed up with the Lisa Harnum Foundation, Women's Community Shelters and the Community Migrant Resource Centre to explore how a new women's shelter can be established in the Sydney Hills.

Since the closure of the St Michael's Family Support and Accommodation Centre in 2014, The Hills has been left without a dedicated crisis accommodation service for women and children.

Hills Shire Mayor Clr Andrew Jefferies said that while The Hills generally had low crime rates, domestic violence was still a concern.

"Unfortunately, we are not immune from the scourge of domestic violence and rates are higher than many would expect," Mayor Jefferies said.

"We can't shy away from the problem and pretend it's not there. Women and children cannot suffer in silence."

"I'm proud that we are working with the Lisa Harnum Foundation, Women's Community Shelters and The Community Migrant Resource Centre to look into options for the open of a new women's shelter."

The model envisaged would be a shopfront which had an information and referral service for women, with refuge accommodation throughout the rest of the property.

Mayor Jefferies invited residents to have their say at a community information session being held at Castle Grand. (See details about "Hear Say" in Community News section)

KNC-Galston Volunteers Needed

Wondering if you can make a difference in your community?

Do you like meeting people from all walks of life?

Do you have a spare hour or two in your week to help someone in your community?

If you can answer yes to even one of these questions – consider joining the KNC - Galston team at the Galston Community Health Centre.

Volunteering opportunities are available in a variety of ways

- Help older community members to travel to appointments with their local doctor, the physio or rehabilitation.
- Companionship – just a friendly phone call once a week to say hello and chat to an older community member who is not able to get out and about
- Help with the Meals on Wheels lunch days at the Centre
- Do you have computer skills? Those skills are needed to help community members learn the basics of how to use a computer, tablet or email.

- Outings – join us as a volunteer on one of our outings with our clients. Cruise the Hawksbury or lunch at the Kokoda Memorial at Homebush or simply enjoy fish and chips at Palm Beach.

If your preference is more behind the scenes work such as Data entry, catering, mail outs – there is an opportunity for everyone. For further information on how you can help contact a KNC – Galston coordinator at the

'Discover the Hawkesbury' visitor guide launched

The new 'Discover the Hawkesbury' visitor guide was officially launched at the Hawkesbury Regional Gallery on Wednesday, 15 April 2015 by The Hon. Stuart Ayres MP, Minister for Trade, Tourism and Major Events and Minister for Sport.

The Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford believes the guide is set to place the Hawkesbury as a reawakened destination for tourism.

Two local University of Western Sydney interns have created and designed the visitor guide as a promotional tool that reflects the changes in the way print media is used by the market. The result is an innovative approach to advertising, steering away from individual business brands competing for attention. The guide offers readers a cohesive vision of the beauty and diversity of tourism experiences in our area.

Guide Dog Access Rights

The NSW Police Force as a partner agency in this initiative with Guide Dogs NSW/ACT launched the Guide Dogs Access Card. Assistant Commissioner Denis Clifford, Corporate Sponsor for Vulnerable Communities said that NSW police officers will respond to reports of discrimination from Guide Dog users and issue fines where appropriate noting "it is a crime to refuse entry to a person with a Guide Dog".

For more information about this initiative or Guide Dogs NSW/ACT, please visit www.guidedogs.com.au or call 1800 804 805.

Hawkesbury Councils Mobile Muster - Now On

An interactive MobileMuster unit will be in the Hawkesbury from Monday, 27 April to Thursday, 21 May at Council's Administration Building, located at 366 George St Windsor.

Hawkesbury City Council has partnered with MobileMuster, the official recycling program for the telecommunications industry in Australia to provide this free recycling service to residents.

Currently in Australia there are at least 31 million mobile phone subscribers and an additional 23.5 million unused phones hiding in drawers and cupboards across the country.

Mayor Thanks Volunteers and Staff For Storm Response

Hills Shire Mayor Clr Andrew Jefferies has thanked The Hills SES volunteers and Council staff for their extraordinary effort in dealing with the effects of the severe Sydney storms earlier in the week.

"This was the most severe storm we've seen in more than a decade and the response from our dedicated Hills SES volunteers and Council staff has helped to ease the impact," Mayor Jefferies said.

"Council staff and SES volunteers worked around the clock, responding to 281 jobs throughout the two-day storm period relating to incidents such as trees across roads and homes, road maintenance and building maintenance to name a few."

"Our staff are well trained in crisis management and I think the way they responded to the storm proved that."

Mayor Jefferies said that staff and SES volunteers were working to ensure all flood-affected roads were opened as soon as possible.

"We have a number of roads that are usually prone to flooding and we are working to get them re-opened as soon as possible," Mayor Jefferies said.

"Once again I'd like to thank the dedicated Hills SES volunteers and Council staff for working together so effectively, and I'd like to thank the community for their understanding and patience."

Waste Education - Hey Tosser campaign

Council has secured $90,000 in funding from the NSW Environmental Protection Authority to rollout the 'Hey Tosser' program which focusses on litter prevention in the Hawkesbury.

The 'Hey Tosser' program targets littering in three identified litter hotspots: Windsor Street, Richmond; North Richmond Shopping Centre car park, North Richmond; and McDonalds/KFC car park at McGraths Hill. These sites were identified after Council conducted a litter audit across the Hawkesbury.

The 'Hey Tosser' campaign features the installation of new garbage bins and cigarette butt bins, as well as an education campaign aimed at reducing the incidents of litter in the area.

Next week, some of the new bins will also have small cigarette butt bins (enviropoles) attached to them to encourage people to dispose of their cigarette butts correctly. A recent Council audit has found that cigarette butts account for 43% of the total litter found at the three litter hot spot sites.

Community Conversations

Leading up to and including Neighbourhood centre week (11th - 17th May) which this year is themed 'Hear The Voice of The Community' we are running a survey and want to hear from you about the kind of community you want to live in. Take our survey here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/9MVBFNV>

The information you provide in this conversation will assist Richmond Community Services Inc. to better understand how people wish to live in this community, what they are passionate about and willing to participate in.

MORGANS LAW

A very big void does exist

It's been discussed in the media for a while now but the problem has now become chronic – there is an incredible shortage of free-standing, single-level dwellings available for the ever growing number of empty nesters.

As an active agent I am forever being approached by clients who are not quite ready for a retirement village but relish the prospect of low-maintenance, independent living.

Why the single-level home shortage?

The answer is simple – dollars and cents. The developers that I come across are sympathetic but recognise the commercial reality that there is more money in building townhouses than there is in building free-standing single level dwellings.

The other challenge is bedrooms – some older buyers are happy to purchase a two-storey home with upstairs accommodation for children and grandchildren, but require the master bedroom downstairs.

The only way I can see the situation changing is if the council and other related bodies/suppliers provide a financial incentive for developers to build free-standing dwellings.

With huge consumer demand, I have absolutely no reservations in saying that excellent prices would be achieved for free-standing dwellings. However, the only way we are going to entice developers and builders down this path is to assure them that their bottom line (profit margin) will be maintained or, potentially, improve.

Your Agent,
Sid Morgan

MORGANS
Excellence In Everything We Do

The Agent The AGENT CHOOSES

1 May 2010
Morgans Realty

Dear Sid,

Thank you for your untiring effort in selling our property.

Your professionalism in marketing our home has resulted in a price in excess of the best several offers we had from other agents (to a value in excess of six digits) that realised the true market value of the property.

Being an agent myself in Qld and NSW for nearly two decades I appreciated your honesty, integrity & sincerity in achieving the best value for our home.

We were impressed with your brochure which was very comprehensive & self explanatory, ensuring that only appropriate clientele were allowed to inspect the property.

I will have no hesitation in recommending your services to anyone who seeks to achieve the true value of their property when seeking a sale.

Thank you
Shanthi Bala
Principal (former EdgeWater Real Estate – Bella Vista)

MAKING NSW LEAST LITTERED STATE

The NSW Government has launched the next phase of the Hey Tossler! anti-littering campaign. The campaign involves TV commercials, images and slogans focusing on the public shame of being caught littering. I am pleased the NSW Government has launched this campaign to help our local community crack down on litterbugs, which through their irresponsible behaviour is tarnishing our beautiful area. This campaign sends a clear message that littering is unacceptable, having a negative impact on the community and the environment. Social research shows people are less likely to litter if they think someone is watching, and that's what this campaign focuses on. Changing attitudes and behaviours towards littering will help us achieve our aim to be the least littered state per capita in Australia. In 2011 the estimated cost of litter prevention and litter clean-up services nationally was $300-$350 million a year. In NSW, cigarette butts are the most commonly littered item, making up 35 per cent of all litter. Across Australia 7.2 billion cigarette butts are estimated to be littered each year. The campaign will complement other NSW Government initiatives including our plan to introduce a container deposit scheme, fines for littering from motor vehicles based on public reports and grants to local councils and community groups to tackle litter from 2013 until 2017. To view more information visit www.epa.nsw.gov.au/heytossler To report littering from a vehicle visit www.epa.nsw.gov.au/reportlitter or download the Report to EPA mobile app.

ANZAC DAY

With pride, we welcome Anzac Day,
That all who live may say
Thanks to them who faced the challenge,
Our land is free today.

Each year, we pause to pray,
And our respects to pay,
The men who fought the battles
For us to live our way.

The nation, honours this day,
In memory of them who lay
Beneath the cross in foreign fields,
Where the supreme sacrifice was made.

As we enjoy our lives today,
No words could ever say
How much Australians owe
The ones who passed away.

There is no way, we can repay,
The heroes whom the foe did slay.
But everlasting gratitude and love
Our hearts convey, each Anzac Day.

Mia came into care heavily pregnant and gave birth to 4 babies. Her kittens are now old enough to find their new homes and so it is now time for Mia to find her own forever home. Mia is so very friendly and affectionate towards humans, she loves to be patted and given lots of loving attention. She gets on well with her kittens but unfortunately hasn't warmed to the other cats at her carers home. Because of this we feel she would be best suited to a home with no other cats, or possibly to go to a home with one of her kittens. She has been desexed, microchipped, vaccinated, flea and worm treated for her adoption fee

Jim Lillis (Snr) with a blockbuster bomb (aka "Cookie")

I recently received yet another letter from a reader. Unfortunately it was received after the deadline for the last issue. The letter started off mentioning the Pegler family who was featured in a previous issue and then goes on to tell of wartime memories of the Lillis family. I found both items quite interesting.

To start with the late Jim Lillis Snr was a close friend of James Pegler's parents who was the projectionist at the old Castle Hill Cinema owned and operated by the Pegler family. The writer stated in his letter that the close bond between his father (Jim Lillis Snr) and the Pegler family led to naming their son James after his dad.

Prior to WWII, Jim Lillis Snr. was an apprentice electrician by day and at night moonlighted as the projectionist at the cinema. The Lillis family lived near the end of Cook St (then called Park Rd) Baulkham Hills.

The Peglers kept up communication with Jim Lillis when he went off to war by writing to him in England where he was serving with the RAAF. This now leads to the next part of the reminiscing regarding the war time experiences of the late Jim Lillis Snr.

At the outbreak of war with Germany, Jim tried to sign up with the RAAF but was knocked back on medical grounds, so joined the army instead where he became a member of the 5th Infantry Brigade in December 1940. Eventually he attained the rank of Sergeant in the Army.

Whilst at camp with the army, the camp was visited by the RAAF who were running a recruitment drive asking if anyone would like to transfer to the RAAF. Jim Lillis who had always wanted to fly saw his big chance and duly applied for a transfer under the Empire Training Scheme. The RAAF had by then relaxed their medical requirements as they needed every man that they could get for the war in Europe. Jim joined the RAAF on the 18th November 1942. According to the Jim Lillis Jnr the writer of the letter, the army C.O. of Jim Snr tried to talk him out of joining the RAAF as he didn't like losing one of his best Sergeants.

Following two years of intensive training (the most highly trained force that Australia had produced up to that time) Jim became a wireless operator/air gunner with the Lancaster Bombers

of the 460 squadron, RAAF operating from Binbrook, Lincolnshire, England. Jim's crew mostly flew in Lancaster "C-Charlie" with their pilot being Wes Langcake who now resides in Adelaide.

460 squadron, RAAF achieved the dubious fame of flying more missions, dropping more tonnage of bombs and losing more aircrew than any other squadron in the whole of Allied Bomber Command. A tour of duty was 30 missions, but aircrew weren't really expected to survive beyond 10 missions. The squadron was technically wiped out three times over but managed to keep going through the constant replacement of aircrew from the Empire Training Scheme.

Jim Lillis Snr managed to complete 24 missions before the war came to an end. He had three siblings, a sister named Mary and two brothers Frank and Tom. The youngest, Tom also served in the 460 squadron as a mid-upper gunner, whilst eldest brother Tom fought against the Japanese in the Solomon Islands with the Australian Army.

All three brothers returned home safely after the war, but are now all deceased. Jim Lillis Jnr has become the recipient of their official records, memorabilia and log books. He also now holds an interesting medal given to his grandmother (Elsie Lillis) by the Australian Government which has a bar hanging below it with three little stars signifying that she had three sons fighting in the war.

Apparently this medal entitled her to a few extra "perks" regarding rations and travel fares etc. He also holds his father's (Jim Lillis Snr) medals and service issued Ray-Ban sunglasses, which he often wears, still kept in their original military issue case.

Only about 50% of all men who flew with the 460 squadron survived the war. About 1000 men from that squadron were killed in combat.

Aussie Pumps

Aussie Puddle Sucker

The recent violent storms that hit Sydney and the Hunter region have left some home and business owners devastated with flooded basements, workshops and carparks. A local company, Australian Pump offer a lightweight, submersible single phase residue dewatering pump, dubbed the 'Puddle Sucker', that is ideal for these dewatering applications.

The 'Puddle Sucker' is designed to remove water down to 1mm. Weighing only 12 kilos, it can be easily lowered into sumps or flooded pits. The submersible pump is able to produce flows of up to 170 litres per minute, with a head of up to 11 metres.

"The Puddle Sucker is ideal for draining water from flat surfaces or removing water from flooded areas like cellars, basements, car parks or man holes" said Aussie Pumps' John Kofron. "It is a tough, reliable, hardworking submersible. It's manufactured by Tsurumi Pump, the world's largest submersible pump company, and is designed to last, so it will always be ready for the next storm," he said.

The pump features a single phase 0.48kW, capacitor start electric motor and a 10 metre heavy duty submersible cable. A non-return valve stops any water from flowing back to the drained area unlike traditional centrifugal pumps. A resilient rubber base plate offers protection to the pump and stops the floor from being damaged.

The Puddle Sucker uses a semi vortex design impeller that is highly resistant to abrasion. The motor is protected by a dual inside mechanical seal, located in the oil chamber with two silicon carbide sealing faces. The pump has all the no-compromise features that make Tsurumi submersibles world renowned.

"A Tsurumi submersible is an investment that will deliver years of service," said Kofron. "If your property is prone to flooding, it should be part of your emergency storm kit, ready to throw into action. It may cost more initially, but when you prevent flood damage, you save on repair costs and the pump becomes a hero," he said.

Further information on the complete range of Tsurumi submersible pumps is available on the Australian Pump website (www.aussiepumps.com.au) and from Aussie Pump Distributors throughout Australia.

"Aussie LSC 'Puddle Sucker' submersible dewatering pump will drain to 1mm, ideal for dewatering flat surfaces."

Dharug & Lower Hawkesbury Historical Society

Please join us to hear our guest speaker, author Brenda Inglis-Powell, speak about her book "Soldiers in Different Armies", an exceptional biographical novel. It is an excellent social record and an inspiring story about two people who, though worlds apart, did their best to contribute to society through service to others. The idea for this book was born in the Australian War Memorial when Brenda discovered the WW2 diaries of Albert Moore, Salvation Army Welfare Officer. Brenda's father became Albert Moore's batman and together they worked tirelessly for soldiers in the Middle East and on the Kokoda Track.

While thousands of memoirs are published each year—many about famous personalities—Brenda Inglis-Powell's newly published work stands out because it is about ordinary people.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614
