TRAMS AND TRAINS IN THE HILLS

The Hills Shire Council have done some great interviews with locals from this area. If you are interested in Trams and Trains in the hills, why not go to the website link below and listen or read Bruce Irwin's account of the Tramways and train lines. How they started, who used them and what led to their demise.

More can be read at <http://www.bhsc.nsw.gov.au/external/hillsvoices/BruceIrwin.htm>

The Essex idea

Home renovations can be difficult. By the time the paint goes on the wall, the budget is usually strained and the last thing you want to do is think about furnishings.

But there is hope. And it's in our own backyard.

Essex Boutique Furniture & Gifts in Glenorie has developed its own unique way to offer not only advice but also provide quality products at an affordable price.

They call it the Essex Idea and it's an approach to interior design, service and shopping that is unique. Rather than ordering large volumes of stock, the system they have relies on low levels of stock which are rotated regularly. The store's owner, Lindsey Atkinson, says this is key to the store's popularity.

"The stock is continually changing and the aim is for the shop to look different each time you come in. We want to physically show customers different ways to furnish their home. We believe there is an interior designer in every customer," she says.

The other secret to the store's popularity is the unique items on offer. The furniture is sourced from all over the world and there are pieces that are not available anywhere else.

But it's not just home furnishings that have had the Essex Idea applied to it. The store is also a great place to shop for jewellery, clothing and general gifts. All rotated regularly so there are different ideas every time you go there.

You can find them on Facebook at Essex Boutique Furniture & Gifts and also on Instagram at essex\_glenorie where there are plenty of examples of the stock currently on offer.

Essex Boutique Furniture & Gifts, is located at Shop 1, 940 Old Northern Road, just past Woolworths as you head toward Wisemans Ferry.

Back Pain?

Is there anyone among us, who is not depended on a car for our mobility? Or is there any one, who is not spending a few hours sitting in front of their computers? In reality, there are many among us, whose livelihood is depended on driving around for hours or working on a computer for not so short duration. In these circumstances, if we do not provide adequate support for our back, it can lead to discomfort or pain. One easy step to prevent a potential problem is to use the correct back support in the vehicle or on the chair one is accustomed to use at work or leisure. In some cases, these back supports not only prevent, but, alleviate the pain associated with back pain.

Comfort Discovered, 511, Pacific Highway, Mt Colah, (Tel 9987 4500) has one of the largest ranges of back, neck, and seat supports in Sydney.

Here, a customer is guided on the various options available, based on the knowledge and experience Comfort Discovered has gained over the past 30 years. What makes Comfort Discovered unique? Here, users can try various back or posture supports or cushions, in their own individualized situations and make a decision as to which is the right product for them. This is the place where you can take a back or seat support for a test drive before you invest on the most appropriate one for you.

You do not have to live with some of the discomforts and pain that takes the joy out of day to day living. So, please do not put off that decision to look after your body. Please visit Comfort Discovered and see for yourself the wide range of back, neck and seating supports, arthritis products, mobility products, daily living aids, and a host of other solutions to make your daily life more independent, enjoyable, rewarding and above all a lot of fun!

The Hills Lounge & Sofas at Seven Hills: The business goes back 44 years. Wolfgang Kohnertz who arrived in Australia in May 1967 from Germany, brought along with him his furniture expertise and started to work for a company called Parker. He worked for Parker furniture until 1971 then he and his wife Renate started selling furniture from their home, first in their garage to produce and sell lounge suites equal to the quality he was accustomed too. Their lounge suites became very popular so they rented a warehouse in Girraween and then in Blacktown and their product became very popular in the western part of Sydney.

Due to the quality of their product and decent turn over of their lounge suites it enabled them to purchase their own warehouse in seven hills in 1980. It then became known (under their own name) as Kohnertz furniture, but over the years customers mentioned to Wolfgang that they couldn't pronounce his name, so he later decided when his son Marc finished his schooling and joined the family business also a few years later got married, his wife Toni Marie also joined the business that they would change the name. Then several years ago when Wolfgang decided it was time to retire they sold their business, and went off to explore the world. Whilst traveling the world, especially in Europe, they could not help themselves but to check on the latest and biggest furniture outlets in Europe to get familiar with the latest trends, designs and colour combinations of the European fashion. After their excessive touring of the world then coming back to Australia and seeing furniture show rooms with choices of only a few leather colours and only some choices of fabric, Wolfgang couldn't help himself so with the help of his family, this time also with the grand children they designed new lounges in shapes and colour combinations to suite any home even difficult shaped rooms and bay windows, they like to say they make to order to fit and style any room.

Wolfgang and his Family own the business premises at 11-13 Foundry Rd, Seven Hills, NSW 2147 which is the one they bought 35 years ago. Wolfgang and his family have nearly no overheads and all their savings can go into producing a quality piece of furniture, which allows them to offer the public immense savings. That is why it makes it possible to buy quality leather lounges from under $2,000. We can produce lounges of equal or better in quality than some well known brand names for savings up to 50%. We can now offer a vast variety of Leather colours and Fabric combination choices to suite any style of lounge; we are also willing to assist with styling and colour combinations to create a finished product that enhances a home.

LOCAL NEWS

Generous donation to the people of the Hawkesbury

When local artisan Darren Oates crafted the wall panel titled 'The Five Macs', he really had one thing in mind and that was for it to be displayed in a public building in the Hawkesbury, so he offered to donate it to Hawkesbury City Council.

Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford expressed Council's gratitude, "I would like to personally thank Darren Oates for this very generous donation."

Sydney Hills Branch of the Association of Independent Retirees Presentation By: Fixed Income Investment Group

A keenly interested group of members of the Sydney Hills District Branch of the Association of Independent Retirees attended a presentation by Elizabeth Moran from Fixed Income Investments at the Pennant Hills Bowling Club last Aug 7th.

The group, whose membership is comprised of self funded and partially self funded retirees, was presented with options for conservative investors seeking to maximise the return on their savings without incurring unforeseen risks to their financial security.

Elizabeth, who is an expert investment analyst and Director of Education with Fixed Income Investments, with the help of her colleagues, spoke about and demonstrated the features of various investment classes available which can be tailored to the needs of individual investors.

With the steady decline in interest rates over so many years, retirees have faced an increasing challenge in maintaining their standard of living without putting their savings into investments which incur an uncomfortable degree of risk.

AIR is an information sharing organisation and also plays an advocacy role in advising government on the impact of a changing investment environment, and its effect on retirees wishing to maintain their independence.

Retirees who feel they would benefit from involvement with AIR should contact: Lauris Rennie on 9634 1186 or go to the National website: www.independentretirees.com

Do you Know Someone in the Sydney Hills who Deserves to be Recognised for their Outstanding Contribution to our Community? Nominate Them Now!

The Sydney Hills Awards for Community Contribution recognise the significant contribution by local individuals, businesses and organisations that help build the elements of the Sydney Hills community. Many local individuals, community groups and businesses frequently donate time and funds to promote positive change within the community.

Nominations are open to any individual, community group or business located in The Hills Shire Local Government Area that demonstrates a significant contribution to the community within the last financial year (July 2014 to June 2015).

Nominations can be submitted by the individual, community group or business themselves, or by someone nominating on their behalf. Nominations close on Monday 31 August. To find out more information and to nominate online visit the awards website.

Get Ready for this year's Chemical CleanOut

Have you ever wondered what to do with those unwanted, out-of-date or leftover household chemicals found in your kitchen, bathroom, laundry, garage or garden shed?

The correct way to dispose of potentially hazardous chemicals is through the Chemical CleanOut program.

This year's Chemical CleanOut in the Hawkesbury will be held on Sunday, 23 Aug at Hawkesbury Showground, Racecourse Road, Clarendon between 9am & 3:30pm.

New guide to the best bushwalks around the Hawkesbury

Hawkesbury City Council's Visitor Information Centre has just created a new publication that showcases twelve of the best bushwalks around the Hawkesbury. It is the first of its kind and it is a must-have for avid and recreational bushwalkers.

Tourism Officer Mary Harris, who is also a highly experienced bush walker, has explored each trail to grade them in difficulty and to provide directions, times and distances. Each walk is accompanied by a small map.

Along with colleague Valerie Tabet, Mary has also taken many photographs included in the publication, so it is a Hawkesbury Visitor Information Centre team effort.

Say a big thanks to Dad

In the lead up to this year's Father's Day, North Western Sydney families are invited to join in and celebrate all dads with a fun filled Family Night at Bunnings Warehouse Castle Hill, Dural, McGraths Hill, Rouse Hill and Seven Hills on Thursday 3 Sept, 6pm – 8pm.

North Western Sydney families are invited to celebrate and say a special thanks to local dads by joining an action-packed night of entertainment in the lead up to Father's Day, including colouring competitions and hands-on D.I.Y. gift making workshops where kids can get crafty and create a personalised gift for dad.

For further information, please contact: Toby Locke at Professional Public Relations Tel: (02) 9818 9335 or Email: toby.locke@ppr.com.au

Sydney Blues and Roots Festival announce first band lineup

International and Australian artists will hit the stage at this year's Sydney Blues and Roots Festival and if the first announcement is anything to go by, this year's Festival will be one of the biggest yet.

The Festival, to be held from 22 to 25 October in Windsor, will see a change to its format this year to make it easier for the local Hawkesbury community and visiting tourists to be part of the fun.

More information about the bands playing at this year's Sydney Blues and Roots Festival, proudly sponsored by Hawkesbury City Council, can be found online at www.sydneybluesfestival.com.au

GIVE YOUR CHILD THE ADVANTAGE

school curriculum: local history comes alive during a tour with volunteer guides at Hambledon Cottage

Did you Know

Matthew Flinders, map maker of Australia, visited Elizabeth Farm ?

Elizabeth Macquarie asked her husband to build a school for orphan girls?

John Harris, surgeon, began the immunisation programme that eradicated small pox from Planet Earth by 1978?

Gregory Blaxland, explorer, rests in peace in Parramatta?

George Caley, botanist for Sir Joseph Banks, built a botanical garden on the banks of the Parramatta River ?

Hamilton Hume, explorer, was born in Toongabbie?

Lachlan Macquarie, our fifth governor, commanded the construction of the Female Factory and the Lancer Barracks?

Augustus Alt, surveyor, laid out Pennant Street as the only one on the northern side of the river linking Eastern Farms (Ryde) to Parramatta?

John and Elizabeth Macarthur developed fine quality wool on their Pennant Hills, Seven Hills and Camden farms?

An hour of pleasure and interest awaits you at Hambledon Cottage, corner Hassall Street & Gregory Place, Parramatta, when volunteer guides from Parramatta & District Historical Society give you a taste of life in Parramatta in the 19th century.

HAMBLEDON COTTAGE, Gregory Place, Parramatta OPEN Thursday to Sunday 11am to 4pm. Children $2, Adults $6, Concession $5. Free parking in the grounds.

Impulse Travel

conducted their second Cruise Expo at Castle Hill Country Club on Thursday, 13th August. Fifteen cruise company experts attended providing advice and details of cruise options from the luxury ocean cruises to small ship adventures to self sail yacht charters throughout the world. Throughout the day over 180 people came through the door to speak with and gain knowledge of these cruise options. All cruise options are available to book through Impulse Travel offices at Round Corner or North Rocks.

This success comes on the back of last year's Cruise Expo. As a result of this continued success, Impulse Travel will be conducting another Cruise Expo at the same time next year at the Castle Hill Country Club. So look out for the advertising that will take place and mark it in your diary.

The Honourable Woman
Thursday September 3 – 8.30pm
Episode 3 – The Killing Call

#ourABC

As a young girl, Anglo-Israeli Nessa Stein (Maggie Gyllenhaal) and her brother Ephra (Andrew Buchan) witnessed the assassination of their father by the armed wing of the Palestinian Liberation Organisation. Now in her late thirties, Nessa is at the forefront of the Middle East peace process. She and Ephra have worked tirelessly with their Stein Foundation to help cultivate an atmosphere of reconciliation between the Israelis and Palestinians. Ennobled for her campaigning work, the newly made Baroness must fight forces that are conspiring against her as she awards a highly lucrative contract to a Palestinian businessman. When he is subsequently killed, Nessa and her brother Ephra (Andrew Buchan) come under the renewed close scrutiny of Whitehall and the Secret Intelligence Service.

The mysterious phone calls to Nessa (Maggie Gyllenhaal) become regular, threatening the kidnapped child Kasim's safety should she not do whatever is asked of her. Nessa has rejected Israeli family friend Shlomo Zahary (Igal Naor) as a future business partner on the grounds she believes she has uncovered corruption in his past, a charge Shlomo passionately rejects. He tells her she is being manipulated to partner a Palestinian business instead of him. Nathaniel Bloom (Tobias Menzies), Nessa's security advisor, follows a lead he believes will help him uncover the identity of Kasim's kidnapers. However, Nessa is forced to reveal this to her mysterious caller, and in protecting Kasim, has to stand by as Bloom is murdered. Meanwhile, although Hayden-Hoyle (Stephen Rea) is aware of Nessa's secret past, he is met with a wall of silence by all of Nessa's associates. This in turn however, leads Nessa's brother Ephra (Andrew Buchan) to discover the true identity of Kasim's father Saleh Al-Zahid, who is a member of the terrorist cell that kidnapped Atika (Lubna Azbal) and Nessa, eight years previously.

Outsiders With Darren McMullen
Friday September 4 at 9.30pm
Series Premiere

During this six-part series, The Voice's Darren McMullen is rolling up his sleeves to live, work and play alongside some of the wildest characters in Europe, getting stuck into their strange and terrifying activities.

He spends time with various cultural communities, spiritual groups, traditional clans and modern subcultures to gain an insight into their worlds, and wherever possible, he'll join in and participate in their traditions, customs, ceremonies, spiritual beliefs and practices.

Tonight, Darren heads to Manchester, UK, to find out what it takes to become accepted by Europe's largest ever gathering of My Little Pony fans. Known as Bronies, this international fan group numbers millions and, surprisingly, its members are mainly male aged 16 – 25. Will Darren get to the bottom of why it is that the multi-coloured ponies aimed at little girls command such a cult following amongst grown men?

Then to the Near Death Fiesta in Northern Spain, where Darren is forced to confront his deep set fear of death and attend his own funeral, complete with priest, coffin, pallbearers and thousands of spectators. And at a heavy metal festival in Sweden, Darren takes to the stage with a band of war-paint-sporting, guitar-wielding warriors, as he discovers his inner Viking in front of an audience of six thousand Viking Metal fans.

The Inca: Masters of the Clouds
Sunday, 30 August at 7.35pm
New Series Premiere

Presented by archaeologist and South American specialist Dr Jago Cooper, this two-part series explores the origins, achievements, and nature of the Inca Empire. Along the way, Jago builds a picture of how this remarkable empire functioned. How the Inca mastered their landscape to produce food for millions. How their unique architectural style spread across the continent. How they built an astonishing network of roads to connect the cities of the empire, and how their encounter with the Spanish resulted in disaster.

Episode One: Foundations

The Inca built the largest pre-Columbian empire in the Americas. In the first episode, Jago explores how they did it. He uncovers how Inca agricultural technology transformed the landscape, allowing them to cultivate a huge variety of crops even at high altitudes. He shows how they built an intricate network of storage facilities which allowed them to ward off famine, and also how the Inca relied not on force, but on subtle methods of persuasion and cooperation to build a massive empire.

Aussie Pumps

AUSSIE'S FIELD DAY FORCE

As the national field day season unfolds across the nation, Aussie Pumps is ready with new and innovative products for farmers and contractors. The iconic Australian company invests over $1 million each year in R&D with the target of providing consumers with exceptional products at reasonable prices.

"The last 12 months have been a breakthrough year for Australian Pump" said Aussie Pumps', Pump Products Manager Brad Farrugia. "We've not only developed new innovations but finessed existing lines to give users what they want. Put simply, we've packaged more into our product in terms of performance, energy saving and OH&S without increasing prices" he said.

With an El Nino forecast for the Eastern states of Australia, the company poured a lot of its energy into refining diesel powered portable water movers designed to shift large volumes of water fast.

The big "Aussie Drought Buster" self priming pumps are capable of drafting water from creeks, streams or shallow wells. The 3" and 4" versions, can move up to 1800 L/min.

For broadacre and dairy farmers who use nitrogen based fertilisers, the company has upped the production of their 3" petrol and diesel powered chemical transfer pumps. Called the "Aussie Smart Pumps" these units are made from 30% glass filled polyester and are suitable for virtually all aggressive agricultural chemicals. A 3" pump will push 30% more than its 2" version, that's over 1,000L/min, and will draft liquids from depths of 6 metres.

The Aussie field day force will also be presenting a great new range of pressure cleaners designed to help farmers cut cleaning costs, improve machinery servicing and reduce the cost of cleaning chemicals or detergents.

This season's pressure cleaners include two new 3,000 psi blasters powered by a Honda engines. Supplied in heavy duty steel trolleys, they are ideal for farmers and contractors looking for rugged machines. They deliver a whopping amount of cleaning performance considering the machines size and cost.

Australian Pump also launched a 4,000 psi steam cleaner. The Aussie Admiral is a unique machine developed specifically for Australian consumers in piggeries, chicken farms or similar applications.

Other new products being launched include a range of Tsurumi submersible pumps designed for septic tanks, effluent pump out or waste water applications. Tsurumi Pump, a Japanese company based in Osaka, is the world's biggest manufacturer of electro submersible sump pumps, with annual production capability in excess of 1.5 million units.

The Tsurumi line that will be on display this year includes submersible cutter and grinder pumps as well as dewatering pumps and a full range of aerators suitable for aerobic sewage treatment.

Much of the R&D that developed these products was based on the previous feedback from farmers. "The more we know about market applications, needs and requirements, the better we can serve our customer" said Farrugia. "Our aim is to provide the best pumps and pressure cleaners in the world at prices that represent real value for money" he said.

Rosewater et al

by Laura Rittenhouse
www.laurarittenhouse.com

Susan of Hawkesbury Estate (www.hawkesburyestate.com.au) recently spoke to our garden club about rosewater and how she produces it. Making your own rosewater isn't exactly effortless but it's possible and I'm determined to try it myself one day. Between now and then, I'll happily use some of Susan's rosewater made from her Damask roses right here in the Hawkesbury.

Rosewater has been used for centuries in religious ceremonies, in food preparation and as a perfume. Its earliest recorded recipe dates to 11th Century Persia. Today its popularity grows in kitchens, cosmetic cases and medicine cabinets around the globe as more of us discover its value.

But rosewater isn't the only good thing to come from the humble rosebush, Susan's talk and my research reminded me of the myriad of uses for roses. These revolve around three properties of the flower: they're fragrant, they're edible, and they have purported health benefits. Dried leaves can be used in potpourri or sachets for their aroma; fresh petals glam-up fruit salads and just about any dessert; a few petals in the bath are relaxing and great for the skin; a cup of rose petal tea is claimed to calm and detoxify; recipes abound for roses in foods, drinks and beauty treatments; but if none of that entices you, don't forget roses still win hearts as cut flowers. And I haven't even mentioned rosehips yet! With everything roses have on offer, and considering that this is a perfect region for growing them, there's no excuse not to put a plant or five in your garden.

PETER WELSH AN OUTSTANDING CAREER

On Friday the 9th July I had the great pleasure congratulating Peter Welsh, NSW's longest-serving permanent firefighter who has just retired after almost fifty years of service. Peter who is a member of Castle Hill Fire Station will hang up his helmet for good when he finishes his last shift as a Fire & Rescue NSW (FRNSW) firefighter on Friday morning. Station Officer Welsh joined FRNSW (formerly the NSW Fire Brigades) on 16 September 1966. He served as a fire fighter at fire stations across North West Sydney during his career. Peter worked at Hornsby Fire Station until it was burnt down by a petrol tanker rolling over and bursting into flames at the front of the fire station in January 1971. After that Peter worked at Gordon Fire Station and Crows Nest Fire Station. Peter was transferred to Castle Hill Fire Station in early 1992. He was promoted to Station Officer on the 26th September 1980 and relieved at a variety of stations in the north and North West area of Sydney, including Rydalmere, Eastwood and Ryde. Station Officer Peter Welsh is a credit to FRNSW and the community. I thank him for his commitment, professionalism and the dedication he has displayed throughout his career in protecting our community and wish him all the best in his well-earned retirement. Thanks Peter!!

ROUSE HILL HOUSE

I recently had the great pleasure of visiting Rouse Hill House together with the Minister for Heritage Mark Speakman. Six generations of the Rouse and Terry families have occupied this home and farm from its construction in the early 1800s until the late 1990s, when it opened as a museum. Each one left its mark, adding to rather than erasing evidence of those who lived there before, forming a richly textured series of interiors, landscapes, keepsakes and memories. Shortly after arriving in the colony in 1809, Governor Macquarie commenced building or refinishing roads between distant townships and outlying farming areas to improve transport and communication and increase the colony's economic wellbeing. In order to manage traffic along these new roads, and help fund their upkeep, Macquarie ordered a series of tollhouses to be built at strategic points, much like modern-day toll booths on freeways today. It was during construction of such a tollhouse that Richard Rouse received permission to take up land and construct a dwelling on the elevated grassy ridge, then known as Vinegar Hill. By 1819 Rouse Hill House was standing and the farm was up and running, its sheep sleeping safely within closely paced, dingo-proof enclosures and the stables awaiting Syntax, founder stallion of a soon-to-be celebrated thoroughbred horse stud. With its grand stables and prize horses, orchards and elegant summerhouse, Rouse Hill House was once the social hub of the area. And although the estate was later subdivided as the family fortunes waned, the house and its stories still draw people to its door. Today Rouse Hill House & Farm also features the restored 1888 Rouse Hill schoolhouse (my old primary school), a section of the original Windsor Road turnpike proclaimed by Governor Macquarie in 1813, and the site of the doomed 1804 'Vinegar Hill' convict rebellion.

Angelica was abandoned at a local pound. She are fun loving, friendly, happy girl who has had all of her vet work done and is ready to go to her new home. She is good with other dogs but a bit timid around new dogs, and in only a short time has shown how smart she is and has learnt to sit, stay, stop, toilet, come here, heal, no, respond to her name and is house trained. She will no doubt get even better with this commands as her training continues. Angelica loves people and her carer calls her "my little shadow". She always strives to do the right thing and dislikes being in trouble. She will make a great pet for a family who are after a devoted companion to share their lives with. Angelica will be larger than staffy size when fully grown.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614

Whilst out driving in the car, my wife and I were reminiscing recently, about fashion.

We have an 18 year old boy (rather I should say young man) at home, who is very fashion conscious, and we started to discuss how we were in our teens.

Fashion deals with not only clothing but also other parts of one's personal appearance such as hairstyle, cosmetics and not forgetting the music of the day which has also greatly influenced how we dressed.

Can you recall the Beatniks? Generally they were viewed as intellectuals who wore berets, skivvies and frequented coffee shops where they would recite poetry or sing folk or protest songs.

Also in Australia we had the bodgies and widgees (in the UK they were generally referred to as Rockers- Australia had a rocker culture also which came a little later). The early bodgies who were males (widgees were the female equivalent) would dress similar to the late James Dean. Satin shirts, slicked back hair etc. The slicked back hair saw products such as Brylcreem, Spruso and Atkinson's California Poppy sales climb astronomically. I can still remember the old Brylcreem song which was aired on radio and TV in commercials of the day.

*"Brylcreem a little dab would do you
Brylcreem, you'll look so debonair
Brylcreem, the girls would pursue you Simply rub a little in your hair."*

Now back in the 1960s whilst I was working as a Dee Jay at a teenage dance on weekends and as a guy of 16+ during that period naturally I was fashion conscious also. When the Beatles hit the pop scene I just had to have a Beatle jacket. I didn't go for those plastic Beatle wigs though. During the surf music craze (remember The Atlantics, The Rebels, Jan & Dean and not forgetting the Beach Boys) blonde hair was all the rage amongst many, particularly using peroxide to lighten the hair, Mind you it wasn't only the guys who were fashion conscious, the girls were also. Can you remember the beehive hair styles that many wore back in the day? Or what about the styles made popular by Dinah Lee or that 'blonde headed stompy wompy real gone surfer girl' Little Pattie.

Guys who previously would have considered wearing after shave as being girly, started applying "Old Spice" so that they would appeal to the girls. Although recently a number of women have said to me that they hated the smell of "Old Spice" so did it actually achieve what the guys wanted I wonder.

During the 60s also came the Paisley fashion. I had paisley shirts I would wear to the teenage dance where I DJ'd and on other occasions. Floral and paisley styles became very popular with the Hippie generation or Flower people. There were also the bell-bottomed trousers. What of the girls in their Go-Go outfits or wearing muu-muu's. My wife wore Hipster shorts and dresses at the time and talking about shorts can you remember the Culottes and the Hot Pants? Who can forget the ruckus caused when Jean Shrimpton (aka The Shrimp) wore a mini to the 1965 Derby Day races at Flemington, Victoria? Much of the older generation were outraged, whilst the younger generation thought it was so liberating. Talking about liberating clothes, topless dresses were also introduced during the late 60s or early 70s but they just didn't take off.

In the seventies, a popular fashion amongst men of the day was the Safari Suit. I had one that I wore out and also to work. You could also get a safari suit with shorts rather than long trousers.

Other fashions that I recall during my younger days include the rope petticoats that my sisters wore, bobby-sox, pony skirts and gingham dresses. I recall guys wearing floral shirts, cowboy string ties and when cuff less trousers became more popular than those with cuffs.

Now how about you?

If you have some great memories, or perhaps you belong to a local community organisation and would like to share your experiences with us then feel free to share your memories or experiences by writing to PO Box 1278, Baulkham Hills, NSW 1755 or email to metropoll@optusnet.com.au. You can also share memories on any of my facebook memories groups including Hills District Memories which you will find here <https://www.facebook.com/groups/Hills.memories/>

You can write about childhood memories of where you may have grown up. Tell us about your school days. Where you worked, played or went on holidays. Your first car or your first date. This page is about memories so tell us yours.
