Can we keep your dog from getting out? - We certainly can!

Hidden Fence Sydney North is based in Sydney's North West Hills District. We are a team of dedicated pet lovers who keep pets safe in their yards and out of harms way. We have installed over 1000 pet containment systems and trained over 2000 dogs and cats. We service the Sydney North Side, Hills and Rural Districts, Northern Beaches, Sydney's outer West, Hawkesbury and the Blue Mountains area.

Hidden Fence brand offers The DogWatch Hidden Fence dog Containment System. Only Hidden Fence uses a patented

"Safelink FM/DM digital signal" that's transmitted through a tough wire installed around your property, below ground level or on a fence line. A lightweight, waterproof dog receiver collar is worn by your pet that picks up this harmless signal.

When your pet gets close to the desired boundary (usually within 1/4 to 2 meters of the wire), an audible warning tone reminds your pet not to cross the boundary. If the warning is ignored, which is rare after training, the collar emits a customised stimulation and prevents your pet from crossing.

Through conditioning and clear instructions, your dog becomes well aware of the location of his new boundary fence, and receives reward when he avoids it. Hidden Fence will even train highly prey driven dogs using various target sources throughout the dog training if needed.

We offer a free quote and consultation for all customers and for a limited time we are offering a free Rechargeable Battery Backup for all installations.

For further information or referrals about the products we supply, install and believe in, look us up at www.hiddenfence.com.au or contact Joe on 0416 104 660 or joe@hiddenfence.com.au.

Customer Testimonial

Hi Joe,

Just wanted to let you know how happy I am with the hidden fence! It's been a total success. Has given me great relief and made a huge difference to my life! I know you were joking when you said I could sell this system - but I would and will happily recommend to everyone.

Cheers Sue, Cattai

Experience and knowledge are traits in any business that cannot be bought and sold. They are earned over many years of dedication and hard work. They are characteristics sought by customers who rely on quality products and demand only the best service.

When it comes to farm and garden equipment, there are many suppliers but few that can offer decades experience and knowledge. It's one of the reasons why Hills District Farm Equipment has been around since 1963. Their customers know they are onto a good thing and keep coming back for more.

The family owned operation, now in its third generation, is expert at supplying, advising on and servicing only the best equipment for your contracting, farming and gardening needs. It's current list of customers reliant on its expertise include everyone from hobby and weekend farmers to large agricultural operations. They also supply to all types of Government, commercial and domestic sectors.

Originally set up as a second hand trader of tractors the business now lists a huge range of machines that help make farming and commercial gardening an efficient and profitable venture.

The tractor side of the business is now augmented by zero turn mowers, ride-ons, skid steer loaders and hand held power equipment.

But the sales side of the business is only half the story. The business is now set up as one stop shop for parts and service as well. Additionally, on-the-road sales staff and an on-the-road service van means you will never have to go anywhere else.

Finally, and definitely not lastly, the company has now taken its shop online where you can browse and order parts and new products 24 hours a day.

To see their full range of products, shop or to contact them for a competitive quote you can visit their website at www.hdfe.com.au or to talk to one of their helpful and knowledgeable staff you can phone (02) 9651 1896.

Living at Home Instead...
Independently

Comprehensive library of monthly informative and helpful articles for older people wanting to stay happy and healthy in their own homes...

Over 200,000 individuals in Australia have Alzheimer's disease and related dementia - a number expected to exceed 700,000 in the next five decades. These numbers represent millions of families with loved ones who require special care, both at home and in assisted living facilities.

Home Instead Senior Care have trained CAREGivers who help maintain a safe environment, manage changing behaviours provide nutritious meals, provide mind-stimulating activities create social interaction and supervise daily activities.

CAREGivers can also provide assistance with the simple pleasures of life, such as a walk in the park, a picnic or spending time in the garden. These care activities are proven to maximise abilities and independence and remain one of the best treatment.

The best place for a person with memory loss is in familiar surroundings. The services provided by Home Instead Senior Care's family network of locally involved franchise offices are a valuable, trusted solution to help your loved one maintain a regular routine, enhancing his or her quality of life.

Dementia - A Resource Guide for Carers

Home Instead Senior Care and Alzheimer's Australia have partnered to write a free resource booklet for carers of people with dementia.

With an estimated 1.2 million Australians caring for someone with dementia, we believe this booklet is a timely addition to our suite of free public education materials. We want to continue to lead the way in providing help to carers and our own CAREGivers to understand how they can provide the best care for people with dementia.

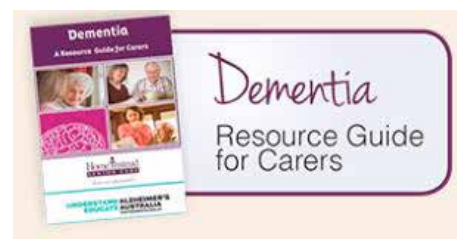

Dementia is the single greatest cause of disability in older Australians (aged 65 years or older) and the third leading cause of disability overall. Although many people mistakenly believe dementia is a normal part of growing older, it can affect people from all backgrounds, ages and lifestyles. One in four people over the age of 85 have some form of dementia. In Australia, symptoms of dementia are typically noticed by families around three years before a formal diagnosis is made.

The 20 page booklet Dementia A Resource Guide for Carers outlines:

- What dementia is and how it affects people
- Suggests ways a carer can provide practical support
- Provides insights and communication tips for carers
- Includes information about where carers can obtain further advice and support

Celebration For Special Hills Resident

When Baulkham Hills resident Ethel Giles was born – Australia's Prime Minister was Alfred Deakin, the world's first military plane had just been built and the population of The Hills was around 3000 residents.

106 years later and Mrs Giles is celebrating yet another birthday in the company of family, friends and Hills Shire Mayor Dr Michelle Byrne, who was very happy to meet the lady who could very well be The Hills' oldest resident.

"The part of my job I enjoy the most is meeting residents, but when you meet someone like Ethel it's really special," Mayor Byrne said.

"Ethel has lived through some of the most important periods of Australian history including the First World War, the Great Depression, the Second World War and seeing the nation transform into a multicultural society."

Mrs Giles has three children (Ron and Graeme Giles are both Hills residents), seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, with one more on the way.

Her son Graeme has described her as a very social person who always keeps up to date with what's going on in the world.

"Mum is a caring person who has a strong and alert mind and keeps up with all the news. She really enjoys when family and friends come around for a chat," Mr Giles said.

"Mum was gardening until her mid-90s but now she directs me on what she'd like pruned. We celebrated today with lunch at Baulkham Hills Sports Club where mum is a member and a weekly visitor."

Annual Report Underlines Strong Council Position

Council's infrastructure backlog has been cleared and the organisation has recorded its strongest financial results to date in another excellent year for The Hills Shire.

Mayor Dr Michelle Byrne said she was proud of the achievements outlined in the 2014-2015 Annual Report, which was released by Council earlier this week.

"We've recorded an operating surplus of $248.7 million, we've built 13km of new road and 28 km of new footpaths and cycleways, determined 1645 development applications and completed 283 capital works projects."

"While the $248.7 million operating surplus sounds like an enormous figure, it's important to note that we are a growth Council and that we do have roughly $1.2 billion worth of infrastructure to deliver over the next 15 years in areas like Box Hill, North Kellyville and the Balmoral land release area."

"In June 2015, we cleared our infrastructure backlog excluding stormwater drainage, which is valued at around $15.5 million. Only four years earlier that infrastructure backlog was valued at $52 million, so we've invested heavily in rejuvenating our established communities and building some new ones."

"Over the next four years, we're going to deliver more than $252 million worth of infrastructure, with big ticket items like the major upgrade of Samantha Riley Drive, the rejuvenation of Baulkham Hills Town Centre and the construction of sporting reserves at Caddies Creek, Balmoral Road and Arnold Avenue."

Mayor Byrne said that the population of The Hills would increase by over 100,000 people over the next 20 years and there would be increased development around the future Sydney Metro Northwest stations.

"The Hills is in a period of transition and it's good to know that we are ready to deal with the challenges that may arise over the coming years. We have significant cash reserves and a strong record of asset management which means we are ready to deliver the infrastructure that is needed now and plan for what is needed in the future."

"We've shown the NSW Government that we are fit for the future. We've outlined a plan for a larger Council area, taking in suburbs that currently lie in Parramatta, Hornsby and Hawkesbury local government areas. This would place a burden on our finances but we are willing to do our part to reform the local government sector."

105 New Australians in the Sydney Hills

105 Hills residents are now officially Australian, following a citizenship ceremony held at The Hills Shire Council last Monday September 28.

Mayor Dr Michelle Byrne said that the regular citizenship ceremonies reminded her how lucky we are to live in Australia.

"Ask any Hills Shire councillor what their favourite civic event is and many will mention citizenship ceremonies," Mayor Byrne said.

"It really makes you feel lucky and proud to be an Australian when you see how jubilant people are to become citizens."

"On Monday we had 105 residents from 30 countries who became citizens and on behalf of The Hills Shire, I'd like to congratulate them on making this step."

Heritage Park Heats Up With Two New Barbecues

One of The Hills' best parks is now equipped with two new barbecues that are completely covered by a shelter.

Hills Shire Mayor Dr Michelle Byrne and Deputy Mayor Cllr Yvonne Keane tested out the new barbecues at Castle Hill Heritage Park by cooking a few chevapis last week.

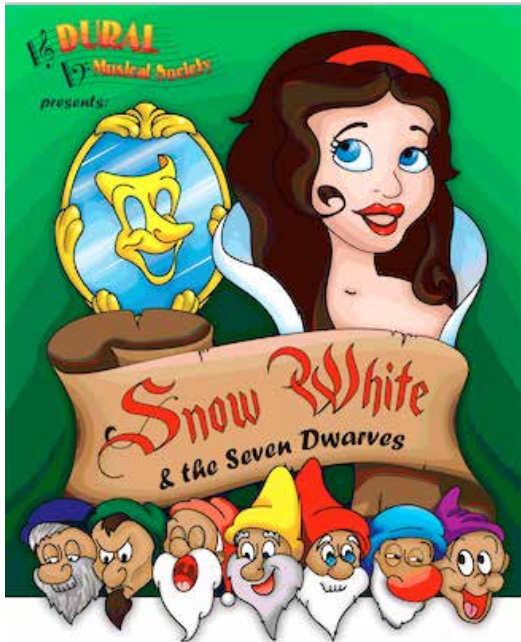

"Throughout The Hill Shire, our parks are being rejuvenated and upgraded – whether it be sporting fields, amenities blocks or playgrounds," Mayor Byrne said.

"We want residents to be proud of their neighbourhood and enjoy spending their leisure time at our public parks."

"I'm sure that these barbecues will become very popular over spring and summer."

Each barbecue has two hot plates that heat up very quickly that are ready for residents to enjoy now.

Aussie Pumps

Primed for Fire Season

Recent rain and warm temperatures have combined to produce a flush of new undergrowth. With just a few hot days, this will rapidly turn the Hills District bushland into a tinderbox with potential for catastrophic bushfires.

Thousands of residents live in pristine bushland suburbs. Many are unaware of the potential dangers this brings.

Think Water Dural, also trading as Dural Irrigation, is well prepared for the early start to this year's fire season. Senior salesman, Peter Colosimo has turned a section of their store into an 'Aussie Pump Shop', stocking a full range of engine drive pumps including the Aussie Fire Chief.

"People are already taking advice from firefighting authorities to prepare for an early fire season. We can help with a great range of Aussie fire pumps but also with advice and accessories that can be the difference to success or failure in fire protection," he said.

Aussie Pumps are running a seasonal campaign called "Aussie Fire Safe". The program includes a wide range of initiatives to educate the community to defend property, crops, livestock and human lives.

"Fire protection is more than just buying a pump," said Peter. "We have Aussie Survival Guides to give away that inform customers how to set up a fire protection plan for their home or property," he said.

The Aussie Fire Chief is claimed to be the world's best fire pump and represents great value for money. It is built to ISO 9001 quality standards and like all Aussie pumps is covered with a unique five year warranty.

The 'Chief', powered by a Honda 5.5HP, will produce up to 450 litres per minute flow, and offers heads of up to 75 metres. That performance can stop fires in their tracks and put out spot fires with ease.

The secret of the pump's performance is in the quality and size of the single piece impeller. At 7 ½ inches it is not only bigger and heavier than competitor impellers, but its superb hydraulic design pushes more water through the pump.

"The Aussie fire pumps are top of the range and offer real performance," said Peter. "They prime first time, every time, and that's important in an emergency," he said.

Think Water Dural are offering package deals on Aussie firefighting pumps with hose kits. They stress that these pumps have won contracts in USA, France, Spain and Italy. They are also widely used by the NSW Rural Fire Service, the National Parks and Wildlife Service and many other firefighting authorities.

For further information please contact Think Water Dural, 270 New Line Rd, Dural, on 02 9651 4111, or Australian Pump Industries 02 8865 3500.

Pollinators vs Pesticides

by Laura Rittenhouse

www.laurarittenhouse.com

Confession: I'm a beekeeper so I'm a natural enemy of pesticides. My dislike of them stems from the fact that they are poison (who likes poison?), they kill good and bad insects indiscriminately plus they have the poor manners to stick around in the soil and on plants long after their targets have perished.

There is a larger picture here: pollinators do amazing things for humans by converting flowers into fruit for the table and seeds for the next crop. Our food options would be decimated if we had no pollinators. Which is, I realise, a bit melodramatic as, for now anyway, pollinators continue to aid in stocking our grocery shelves. But still, we gardeners need pollinators to keep our plants healthy and happy. Commercial farmers can rent beehives but we depend upon what nature provides. Which means we should think about treating pollinators like garden assistants not pests.

If you must use pesticides, please: spray the smallest area possible; don't spray when flowers are present; don't spray when it's windy; spray in the late afternoon when pollinators are less active; avoid pesticides placed in the soil then taken up by the plants - these toxins make their way into the flowers and are consumed by pollinators to devastating effects.

Finally, if protecting pollinators isn't enough to motivate you to avoid pesticide use, consider your own health. You touch, breathe and taste what you bring into your garden. I've written articles in the past about using garden plants: turning roses into rosewater or citrus into marmalade. It only makes sense to avoid chemicals in products you're going to eat, drink or smear on your skin.

In the future I'll write an article about companion planting and insect management. Hopefully that will give you pollinator-friendly alternatives to pesticides.

Discover Wonderful Stories Of Survival by Trevor Patrick

The Exhibition in the LUCAS GALLERY of Hambledon Cottage, Gregory Place, Parramatta is OPEN.

The Parramatta Female Factory precinct with its historic buildings is one of the hidden gems of Colonial Parramatta. Governor Lachlan Macquarie commissioned convict architect Francis Greenway in 1818 to create suitable quarters for the convict women of the settlement. It is a significant site of conscience with layers of history and remains as a testament to an estimated 5000 of the 24,960 women who were transported to the colony from 1788 to 1840. The Factory was a place of refuge for the women, it was a factory for the spinning and production of cloth, and it was a lying-in hospital, a gaol and a 'marriage bureau'.

The Exhibition - HERSTORY Lives of the Parramatta Female Factory Women

The stories of these women will be told – their courage in the face of hardship and loss as well as their enduring spirit and legacy for not only their thousands of descendants but for all Australians.

Herstory is often eclipsed by history so this Exhibition is an opportunity for descendants, family history and history buffs to discover more about these women who are among the Founding Mothers of this nation!

The Exhibition is proudly presented by the Parramatta Female Factory Friends in collaboration with the Parramatta & District Historical Society. Hambledon Cottage, corner Hassall Street and Gregory Place, Parramatta. Open Thursday to Sunday 11am to 4pm. Colonial lifestyle experienced through guided tour of cottage included with the Exhibition for only $6, concession $5, children $2.

Hawkesbury Regional Gallery presents

Colours of the Country III: The Alice Springs Beanie Festival

Plus Cloth: From Seeds to Bloom and Louise Kerr: Dog Days

9 October - 29 November

Three fabulous fibre-textile themed exhibitions open on 9 October, showcasing work by two Blue Mountains artists and a number from far-away Alice Springs.

The third touring exhibition of the popular Alice Springs Beanie Festival is expected to be just as popular as the previous two, and everyone at the gallery is looking forward to another showcase of the iconic Australian headwear.

This collection of Beanies demonstrates the growth of the beanie as an art form over the years, and the imagination, creativity and fine craftsmanship presented in each piece. The exhibition also highlights work produced by Indigenous artists from the Central Desert, who are regular collaborators in this cross-cultural event.

Wear your beanie to the opening and win a prize!

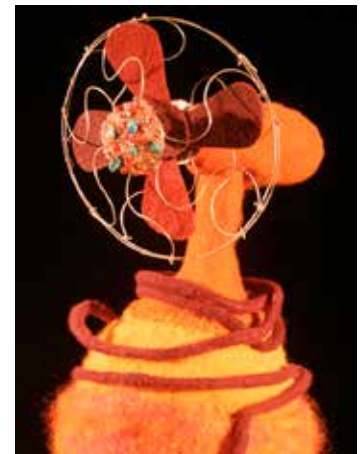

The sight of a gallery full of beanies is enough to give anyone a serious case of beanie envy, so feel free to wear your own to the opening, and the best one, as judged by Gallery Director, Diana Robson, will win a prize. Open to all ages.

Complementing the Beanie Festival is Cloth: From Seeds to Bloom, which features contemporary textiles designed and produced by Blackheath-based designer, Julie Paterson. Inspired by the Australian bush, Paterson's stunning fabrics are a riot of colour, floral forms, and patterns that are much sought after, with short batch productions quickly snapped up by avid collectors, interior decorators, and commercial clients.

The sole owner of Cloth, which took root in 1995, Julie had a simple idea that has been at the heart of her company ever since: to make contemporary and natural furnishing fabric by hand, locally and sustainably.

'I like my work to always tell a story of sorts, evoking a perspective that comes directly from my life and the places I've been. I want these stories to enrich the designs with a layer of meaning beyond the fabric itself and I want people to engage with these stories. My art seeks out that narrative to build on so my work can reflect a place, a time or a feeling. The story is so important because it gives context and authenticity' she says.

#ourABC

As our third longest serving Prime Minister, Andrew Dugdale mattered. He dined with presidents and kings, hosted world summits and changed the lives of millions of his fellow Australians. But now he's retired; a not-so-elder statesman with time on his hands to ponder the question - was it all worth it? Not that he's asking of course. No, his inquisitive and over enthusiastic ghostwriter Ellen has an unhelpfully insatiable appetite for the truth.

After the advance for his memoirs is spent, but writing nothing in return, Dugdale must accept Ellen into his dysfunctional household. There's his wife Catherine who loves men – especially her husband's chief of staff Sonny. Dugdale's daughter Carol has moved back home with her son. Under house arrest following a tax 'mix up', Dugdale's manager Henry is on Skype every day. Curtis was an ASIO man until a hunting accident and now he's Dugdale's driver.

So begins a comic tango between truth and spin as Ellen and Dugdale take to the dance floor. CAST Shaun Micallef.

Ep1 – Introduction –

An Ex-PM must repay a million dollar advance for an autobiography he hasn't written - or get someone to write it for him ASAP. Ghostwriter Ellen arrives at the home of former Australian PM, Andrew Dugdale. She's armed with a laptop, a deadline and a 1001 questions. However, day one does not go well, what with a lost grandchild, a stolen security system, a vandalised ComCar, a cheating wife and a dead goose.

Broadmoor
Tuesday 06 October - 9:40pm
Mental As... Special

Broadmoor, the most famous high secure hospital in the world, has allowed unprecedented access to television cameras for this new two-part documentary.

For the first time in its 150 year history, viewers will see the innermost parts of this iconic institution. The hospital in Berkshire, often mistaken for a prison, helps treat severely mentally disordered patients many of whom are violent offenders. It's best known for its high profile patients such as Charles Salvador, Ronnie Kray, Peter Sutcliffe and Kenneth Erskine.

Filmed over the course of a year, with extensive access to the hospital, the programmes paint a picture of life inside Broadmoor for both staff and patients. It's the first time that patients have been allowed to tell their stories themselves and cameras follow patients while they meet psychiatrists, open up about their violent backgrounds, visit the hospital shop and participate in workshops.

The result is an unparalleled insight into what really goes on behind those infamous red brick walls; how violent patients are treated, what they do each day and who the men and women are, who work with the country's most dangerous men. It took five years to negotiate this level of access.

Broadmoor screens during Mental As... the ABC's week long initiative in support of Mental Health Week which aims to encourage Australians to start talking about mental illness and to give to mental health research. Visit abc.net.au/mentaldas or SMS "MentalAs" to 0455 021 021 to show your support and make a contribution.

The Principal
Wednesday, 7 October - 8.30pm
New Series Premiere

For the first time in three years, and starting on Wednesday, 7 October at 8.30pm, SBS will premiere its new and original Australian crime drama series, The Principal. Set in a boy's high school, this four part drama series features AACTA award-winning Alex Dimitriades (The Slap, Underbelly) who plays the role of Matt Bashir, a former history teacher and Deputy Principal at a prestigious girls' school, who is promoted to Principal of Boxdale Boys High.

Boxdale Boys High is a notoriously violent and difficult school and Principal Bashir is brought in because of his different and radical approach to reform. The sudden change brings him into conflict on all fronts and even leaves his personal life exposed. Still, Bashir works overtime to get the local community on side, promising change, but just when it seems he is making progress, a student is found dead on school grounds. The new crime drama showcases a range of high calibre Australian talent including AFI nominated Aden Young (Rectify, East West 101) and AACTA award-winning Mirrah Foulkes (Animal Kingdom, Hawaii Five-0).

New Series

Inspired by the stand-up comedy and real life experiences of its creator, writer and star Josh Thomas, Please Like Me explores the world of a young man who is in no hurry to grow up. But as he navigates a bipolar mother, a father in a mid-life crisis, a newish baby sister, an anxiety-ridden boyfriend, a peripatetic ex-girlfriend and an unmotivated best friend, he may just be the sanest person he knows.

In season three, new characters arrive, complications ensue, and a cast of extraordinary performers competes again for screen time with John the cavoodle.

Josh and Tom acquire new housemates, some fluffy, innocent baby chickens. Arnold is still on the scene, and Josh is wondering if they are ready to try a proper relationship. This is a very big step for him. Tom, for a change, is single. Mum has a new housemate too, Hannah. Claire is in Germany, but doesn't seem that settled and spends a lot of time on Skype to Josh and Tom. Dad, Mae and Grace are settling into the chaotic routine of a new family, or at least they were, until Mae drops a bombshell.

Original cast members reprising their roles for season three alongside Thomas are Caitlin Stasey (Claire), Thomas Ward (Tom), Hannah Gadsby (Hannah), Keegan Joyce (Arnold), Debra Lawrance in her AACTA Award-winning role of Mum, David Roberts (Dad), Renee Lim (Mae) and, arguably the show's biggest star, Josh's dog, John.

It's soon after the end of season two and Josh is determined to prove to Arnold that he's a good choice as a boyfriend. Other people have different opinions, especially Mum. Over about a month, Josh canvasses everyone's opinion about Arnold and tries to convince Arnold that he's boyfriend material.

When Arnold finally lets his guard down, Josh realises that Arnold has been keeping him at arm's length because he's worried Josh will see all his faults. Josh convinces him that he does see them – and he doesn't care.

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

CRIME TRENDS CONTINUE TO FALL IN BAULKHAM HILLS

Congratulations to our local police, led by Superintendent Rob Critchlow, with the latest Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research (BOSCAR) data showing major crime categories continue to trend down in the region.

The data reflects the NSW Government's commitment to cracking down on crime.

In Baulkham Hills, there are some impressive downward trends in crime including:

- Domestic violence is down 10.6%
- Malicious damage to property is down 14.7%

It is wonderful to see crime decrease in our local community.

This follows on from the last quarter, when domestic violence was down 10.1 % and malicious damage was down 12.1 %.

This demonstrates a clear strategy and approach from local police in targeting areas of concern.

While domestic violence and malicious damage are down, we must remain vigilant against the threat of fraud in an increasingly digital world, and against break and enters, especially as we approach the warmer months and the temptation to leave doors and windows open increases.

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR COMMUNITY WAR MEMORIAL GRANTS

Grants of up to $10,000 are now available for the preservation, repair or restoration of community war memorials, as part of the NSW Government's commemoration of the Centenary of the Anzac.

Applications are open for the 2015/16 Community War Memorials Fund and close on Remembrance Day – November 11.

The fund has previously funded repairs to the Taree War Memorial Clock, conservation of the Coramba Community Hall World War I Honour Roll, and improvements to security of the Parkes War Memorial.

NSW made a major contribution to the war effort and during the Centenary of the Anzac (2014- 2018), it is important to ensure that our war memorials continue to stand proud and strong.

As a Minister and as a veteran, when I travel around NSW and see memorials in need of a bit of love, I take great pride in letting communities know that these grants are available.

$247,000 was allocated to 45 recipients for the conservation or repair of 52 memorials last financial year.

I encourage RSL sub-branches, community groups and councils to consider applying and ensure Australia's servicemen and women continue to be remembered in their local communities.

NEW PHONICS RESOURCE TO IMPROVE READING SKILLS

The release of a new guide which will assist teachers in using phonics to develop the reading skills of students is a welcome addition to the educational arsenal of our teachers.

The Phonics Guide is part of a series of NSW Government initiatives to improve student outcomes through Great Teaching, Inspired Learning.

The guide complements a requirement for teacher education courses to provide comprehensive phonics instruction.

We know through research that teaching students the relationship between sounds and spelling patterns is crucial to the teaching of reading.

The NSW Liberals & Nationals Government wants all teachers to use phonics and this guide provides every teacher in NSW with the skills and tools they need.

The guide has been developed to assist teachers new to the profession, as well as those with extensive classroom experience.

The Phonics Guide is available from the BOSTES ebos online shop.

BRIGHTEST HSC STUDENTS URGED TO TEACH

While on the topic of teaching, I would encourage high achieving

HSC students to consider a career in teaching.

From 2016, aspiring teachers will need to achieve a minimum of three band 5 HSC results, including one in English, to study an accredited undergraduate teaching degree in NSW.

More than 69,000 NSW Year 12 students have now finished their formal schooling and must lodge their first round preferences for 2016 university courses next week.

We already have high teaching standards in NSW schools. But we need the high achieving students of today to be the high achieving teachers of tomorrow.

The greatest in-school influence on students is quality teachers, so higher standards for future teachers are part of our plan to improve student results.

Teaching is an incredibly important and rewarding job and I encourage this year's HSC students to consider it as a career.

NSW was the first state to set minimum academic standards for entry into undergraduate teaching degrees and to require literacy and numeracy tests for teacher education students ahead of graduation.

Education ministers last week agreed to follow the NSW approach and require all student teachers to sit the test and demonstrate they have literacy and numeracy skills in the top 30 per cent of the population before they can graduate.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Belisa Papandrea on 0487 111 868 or the office 1300 616 614

THEMES

Have you watched the new TV drama “800 Words” about an Australian Columnist who moves to New Zealand and has an obligation to write a column consisting of 800 words. Well with this column I try to write somewhere between 900 to 1000 words. (That has just taken up more than 40 words)

One of the hardest parts about writing a column such as this is determining a theme on what to write about. On that I have decided that this issue’s theme should be about “Theme Parks.”

Sydney has hosted numerous theme parks over the years and only a handful has survived such as Luna Park.

Before the memory of most of us there was a large fun park at Tamarama Beach which had a large roller coaster and would have rivalled Luna Park in size and attractions. The Hills district has also had “theme” parks one of which still survives. First I guess we should qualify what is a theme park. To my mind a theme park is a tourist attraction which concentrates on a particular theme. In the Hills we currently have Koala Park, the theme of which is Australian animal life and in particular marsupials such as Koalas and Kangaroos. Another theme park in the Hills was “Paradise Gardens”, a picnic spot alongside the Hawkesbury River at Cattai. The park is long gone now and is just a memory for those who went there. I recall one of the attractions or themes at Paradise Gardens were the concrete or were they plaster of paris models of dinosaurs. I did hear once, that after heavy rain and the Hawkesbury breaking its banks, one of the dinosaurs was found floating in the river as far away as Brooklyn. The mind boggles at what residents alongside the river would have thought to see the head and neck of a dinosaur floating past, perhaps they may have envisaged a down under relative of the Loch Ness Monster.

Some of the theme parks that I recall in the Sydney region include “Australia’s Wonderland”, which may yet be resurrected. That was a great fun park along the lines Queensland’s Movie World etc. My kids bought season passes for the park and many Hills residents frequented this attraction. Others I recall become old and run down such as “Magic Kingdom” at Lansvale which was on the site of the old Hollywood Pleasure Grounds. The Hollywood Pleasure Grounds would have been a popular spot for many in the 1940s & 50s and I remember going to the Hollywood Pleasure Grounds as a child back in the late 1950s and early 1960s. Later in the 1960s and 70s it became a country music venue.

Animals have always been popular for many theme parks who can recall “El Caballo Blanco” with the Spanish Dancing Horses out at Leppington? Whilst at Wallacia and Warragamba Stafford Bullen of the Bullen family of Circus Fame operated two theme parks “Bullen’s Animal World” at Wallacia with elephants, monkeys and other circus animals, whilst at nearby Warragamba, Stafford Bullen also operated the “African Lion Safari” featuring the big cats. I seem to recall also that the Warragamba park also had a Dolphin Pool with performing dolphins. On the Central Coast, animal life also played a part in Eric Worrall’s Reptile Park. On the subject of the Central Coast we also had the very popular “Old Sydney Town” and currently, fairly locally we still have at Wilberforce the “Australiana Village” also close by we now have a Sydney version of the “Wet and Wild” water park at Prospect. In the past we have seen “Butterfly Houses or farms” come and go, including at Dural and also at Wilberforce. Another now long gone attraction that I miss is the old “Green’s Motorcade” at Harrington Park. But we still have the Tram Museum at Loftus where you can travel on old Sydney trams into Royal National Park or the railway museum at Thirlmere where a steam train ride on a real steam train is very popular, alternatively there are a number of mini railways operating around Sydney including one at Galston Valley.

I guess you could also say that Taronga Zoo and the various Aquariums at Darling Harbour and Manly, together with Madam Tussaud’s and other attractions at Darling Harbour could constitute “Theme Parks”.

So theme parks have come in many varieties and hopefully more will come along for our entertainment and amusement and the amusement of our children and grandchildren. They can be educational (animals and history), exciting (Luna Park etc) or relaxing and enjoyed by the whole family having a picnic in a shaded area at the park.

Well this column now has 935 words in total that is unless one or more of the editors of the various publications that this column now appears in takes to it with his or her red pen anyway happy memories.

North Rocks Parramatta Lantern Club High Tea

On a lovely sunny spring afternoon North Rocks Parramatta Lantern Club celebrated their annual High Tea event to support the Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children, North Rocks.

Lantern Club supporters turned up to enjoy the lovely spread provided by the Lantern Club ladies which of course included lots of pots of tea and coffee.

To everyone's enjoyment the President Elaine Brock introduced the heads and tails game and Vice President Joan Hartley arranged the gold coin game. The prizes were 2 lovely bottles of wine. Lucky door and raffle ticket prizes were plentiful and enjoyed by many. As well as being a financial success a wonderful afternoon was had by everyone.

Our next event will be a Fashion Parade to be held on the 28th November 2015.
