Nova joins Water Wonderland for summer of fun

Christmas is fast approaching which means it's almost time to splash out at the Sydney Hills Water Wonderland. The giant inflatable water theme park will be at Bella Vista farm from Boxing Day until Australia Day and that's not the biggest news...

Water Wonderland is excited to announce that Nova have partnered with the event as the official radio sponsor to bring even more fun and excitement to what promises to be an outstanding summer event.

The iconic station will be pumping out all the latest hits this summer at Water Wonderland. There will also be featured live air-crosses throughout the month that are sure to make the rest of Sydney jealous!

And make sure you look out for the Nova Casanova's who will be visiting the Hills area over the coming weeks to get Hills locals excited about the theme park.

Convicts take over the Farm

The much loved 'living history' theatre production- Convict Footprints, will be back at Bella Vista Farm on Friday 8 January with a performance of Convict Footprints at the Farm, the first act in a two act season.

Convict Footprints at the Farm gives audiences a chance to imagine what life was like living on the farm in the 1830s. It explores the lives of the convicts and characters that worked and lived there in particular Elizabeth the wife of John Macarthur, who ran the farm and all her husband's business interests while he was away overseas. Convict Footprints at the Farm will run on January 8, 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17.

Act two of Convict Footprints will run during February and is titled Footprints @ the Farm-Through the Years. Through the Years will take audiences on a journey through the farm's history from 1830-1940. Footprints @ the Farm-Through the Years will run on February 5, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14.

Convict's writer Steven Hopley said the production will have people laughing one minute and crying the next.

Convict Footprints is an engaging and educational experience that will delight both young and old alike. Tickets are $35pp and are available online or at the gate. For more information or to purchase tickets visit summerseries.com.au

Christmas Sky Show to benefit children in need

Over the next two and a half weeks Hills Shire Council events staff will be collecting donations for Lights for Kids at the Christmas Sky Show on Main Street Castle Hill.

Lights for Kids helps raise much needed funds for the sick and injured children of Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick and The Children's Hospital at Westmead. Every dollar raised goes towards purchasing equipment, funding staffing positions and research.

The Christmas Sky Show runs daily from 8:15pm until 30 December (excluding Christmas Day), with pre-show entertainment from 7pm until Christmas Day.

Share the spirit of Christmas with the children of Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick and The Children's Hospital at Westmead by making a donation to Lights for Kids at the Christmas Sky Show. Look out for Sky Show event crew who will be carrying donation buckets.

Help the Hills Shire Council reach their $1000.00 fundraising target by donating online or at the Christmas Sky Show. To find out more visit the Hills Shire Council's fundraising page at www.lightsforkids.org.au/sydney-hills-christmas-sky-show.

New museum exhibition - Interesting Objects: 60 years of the Hawkesbury Historical Society Collection

What does a doll called Ruth, a miner's couch and a 222 year old document have in common? They are all part of a new and exciting exhibition opening in January 2016 at Hawkesbury Regional Museum in Windsor.

According to the Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Kim Ford, the free exhibition pays tribute to Hawkesbury Historical Society, which has been collecting objects significant to the history of the Hawkesbury since 1956, when a group of history-lovers first met and adopted a Constitution setting out the Society's rules, aims and objectives.

Objects include the Society's first minute-book (chosen by Ian Jack), kept by inaugural Secretary Doug Bowd, a local teacher and historian whose books on Hawkesbury history are still regarded as essential reading.

There is also the original Title Deed to the farm of ex-convict settler, Samuel Jackson, issued in November 1794 (chosen by Jan Barkley Jack). This deed is the only 1794 grant deed known in Australia.

Other items include John Tebbutt's celestial globe (chosen by John Flavin), an exquisite lace collar and 1920s black beaded dress (Carol Carruthers), a miner's couch (Judy Newland) and a model gaff-rigged cutter (Ted Books OAM).

AUSTRALIAN MADE LOUNGES

MAKE IT A DAY OF DISCOVERY by Trevor Patrick

Halvorsen Lyndall II

Hawkesbury River rocky shore

There is no better way to start your exploration of history than to explore your local area. Discover your local history and tell your family and friends.

I started my links with the Hawkesbury River with a splash. My father hired a Halvorsen cruiser in 1950 for the school holidays. Our family boarded the vessel at Bobbin Head and motored along the river to Mangrove Creek where it joined the Hawkesbury at the settlement of Spencer and anchored for the night. I was a keen fisherman and laid my fishing rod alongside the handrail fixed to the cabin roof. My plan was to go fishing early in the evening after dinner.

I climbed up onto the narrow deck and swung around the corner of the cabin grasping the handrail – it was not the handrail but my fishing rod. I promptly fell overboard into the swirling rising tidal water and was rapidly swept upstream into the dark mangrove-lined creek. My cry of alarm brought my father on deck to release the small rowing boat to rescue me.

Years later I visited Spencer and the scene of my near disaster and discovered our first Governor, Arthur Phillip, sailed along the Hawkesbury and at this point of the river rested on the southern shore, now named Gentleman's Halt.

'Near here in 1805 a ship was becalmed on her way from Windsor to Sydney. The crew was attacked by a group of Aborigines and the Sydney Gazette warned travellers on the river to beware of attacks from Aborigines and escaped convicts'. Reference: Cruising Guide to the Hawkesbury by John and Jocelyn Powell.

Discovering all these wonderful events awakened my interest in history which has lasted a lifetime.

Discover many MYTHS AND LEGENDS of the Hills District in the Award-winning book "In Search of the Pennant Hills" by Trevor Patrick, James Symes & Andrew Tink. Now available write 10 Lawrence Road, Kenthurst 2156. Only $60 postage paid Australia wide, Inquiries telephone (02) 9654-2224.

Possum is desexed, microchipped, registered and his injections are up to date till mid December. He has been wormed Possum is just full of fun. He loves everyone. He is full of character and will always have you laughing at his antics. Possum would make a great family dog but being part Dachshund he would be best to go to someone that understands he needs to be lifted off lounges, beds etc to protect his back. Possum is house trained but so far we have not managed to teach him to use the doggy door but he has only been here a week. He is full of adventure and loves exploring the garden. He is dog friendly and is enjoying following my two dogs around. He is very food oriented and eats well. He walks well on a lead. Possum loves playing ball and also likes to carry around the house his squeaky toy. He sleeps well all night. He loves snuggling up as close to you on the lounge, often taps your hand if you stop patting him. If you are looking for a little dog, a dog full of fun, please consider Possum. We think he is just adorable.

LOCAL POLITICIANS SAY

THROUGH STATE MP'S EYES by David Elliott, Member for Baulkham Hills

NEW POLICE RECRUITS FOR HILLS COMMUNITY

The Hills has welcomed two probationary constables who were among the more than 100 new NSW Police Force recruits to be formally sworn in at the Police Academy in Goulburn recently.

Storm Rixon and Natalie Booth have chosen a career that will see them serve the community by protecting lives and property, investigating and solving crime and keeping the people of this great state safe.

Ms Rixon and Ms Booth worked hard at the Goulburn Academy and have today been formally sworn in ahead of starting their new lives as probationary constables in the Hills.

The NSW Government is proud of all the attesting officers who have chosen to take on a career that comes with many challenges but equally many rewards.

The NSW Government will continue to invest in the NSW Police Force to provide the best for them so they can keep the community safe.

More than 3,000 officers have passed through the Goulburn Academy since March 2011.

STABLE AND FALLING CRIME STATISTICS

The latest NSW quarterly crime data shows 16 of the 17 major crime categories have trended down or remained stable across the state in the two years to September 2015.

The offences trending down include:

- Murder (down 20.0 per cent)
- Non-domestic assault (down 3.7 per cent)
- Robbery without a weapon (down 19.5 per cent)
- Robbery with a firearm (down 26.8 per cent)
- Robbery with a weapon not a firearm (down 19.1 per cent)
- Break and enter dwelling (down 5.4 per cent)
- Steal from person (down 6.9 per cent)
- Malicious damage to property (down 7.0 per cent)

The results are testament to the hard work of the NSW Police Force.

I'm pleased to see most of the major crime offences across our state are trending down or have remained stable.

The NSW Government will continue to ensure the NSW Police Force has the tools needed to crack down on crime and keep the people of NSW safe.

In the Baulkham Hills electorate there are some positive downward trends in crime including:

- Assault - domestic violence related is down 20.4%
- Malicious damage to property is down 15.7%

Domestic violence offences have dropped for the third consecutive quarter under the direction of Robert Critchlow.

While any domestic violence is unacceptable, the efforts of The Hills Local Area Command in eradicating this scourge deserve our utmost thanks.

CHECK YOUR POOL FENCES

Local homeowners should check their backyard pool and spa for potential safety hazards right through the summer.

Drowning is a leading cause of accidental death in young children in NSW and the NSW Government is committed to reducing the number of tragic incidents in backyard pools.

In the past 13 years, 83 young children have drowned in NSW swimming pools. This is a distressing figure, which highlights the importance of pool safety.

As we gear up for summer, homeowners and carers should be vigilant in maintaining safety and supervision near pools and swimming areas.

Any child drowning is one too many. We can avoid drowning deaths and injuries by ensuring child-resistant pool fences are well-maintained and pool gates are self-closing or self-latching, and regularly checked.

It's important that pool barriers and fences are checked regularly.

Pool owners should also register their pool with their local council or online if they have not already done so.

Register your backyard swimming pool and download pool barrier checklists at www.swimmingpoolregister.nsw.gov.au

BETTER RENTAL BOND SERVICE FOR AGENTS AND TENANTS ACROSS BAULKHAM HILLS

Greater protection for tenants is available through an innovative new online rental bond management service launched by NSW Fair Trading.

The new system, called Rental Bonds Online, will save agents and private landlords time managing bonds and help tenants securely lodge their bond directly with NSW Fair Trading.

At the moment, Rental Bonds are lodged with NSW Fair Trading – often in the form of cheques or cash – who keep the bond safe in trust under the Rental Bond Board, an independent custodian of rental bonds.

This is a cumbersome process and our new, digital service will be quicker, easier and more secure allowing tenants to deposit bond money directly with the government.

The new scheme help tenants avoid fraud and know that their bond is in safe hands and securely held in trust, from the moment the payment leaves their account.

Rental Bonds Online is voluntary for tenants who can still opt for paper based lodgements if they wish.

Rental Bonds Online is Australia's first online platform for tenants, agents and private landlords to lodge and refund bond money directly with Government.

The NSW Government is focused on improving government services and making it easier for people to transact with government.

I want to encourage tenants, landlords and agents across Baulkham Hills to sign up for Rental Bonds Online.

To use Rental Bonds Online an agent or private landlord can register via an online form on the Fair Trading website or by calling 1800 990 724.

For more information visit www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au/RentalBondsOnline. A video introducing the service is available in English, Arabic, Mandarin, Korean and Vietnamese

Cobham Hall Museum
 Open Saturday, Sunday & Public Holidays 1pm to 3pm
 (Other times by appointment)

Cobham Hall - Home of Solomon Wiseman

Cobham Hall was built in 1826 by convict labourers, commissioned by Solomon

Wiseman, as a home for himself and his second wife Sofia.

It was constructed of hand hewn Hawkesbury sandstone which is mostly still intact to this day.

The laborious job to hand pick redgum rafters can be seen throughout the roof structure.

Lime made from crushed, cooked oyster shells can be seen in the mortar of the sandstone walls as well as the lime wash on the face of the walls and the plaster lining of the ceiling.

The home was later transformed into a hotel.

Why advertise in the local TV guide?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- As a TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.

To enquire or place an ad please email advertise@hillstohawkesbury.com.au for further details or call Anna Fraser on 0499 040 726 or the office 1300 616 614

Recipe for Disaster?

by Laura Rittenhouse
www.laurarittenhouse.com

Someone recently told me that mixing kids and gardens is a recipe for disaster. There are two concerns behind this apprehension. Firstly, creepy crawlies can bite little fingers and secondly, inexpert hands present a risk to tender seedlings and prized plants. I can't help but think these fears are both exaggerated and not a good enough reason to keep a child from learning the wonders of the workings of nature in their own backyard.

There's no way to stop children from coming into contact with spiders and snakes as long as they live in Australia. Kids might as well learn young where they might encounter poisonous fauna: rocks, ledges, rotting logs, tall grass, holes in the soil...

The backyard is a great place to begin spotting the signs to avoid being bitten in the future. Ticks and leeches are also inhabitants of our region. The best way to deal with these hazards is to teach kids to check themselves for stowaways after they've been out in nature.

As for when to protect plants from kids, that's something each household has to decide. Whether creating a dedicated kid's bed or letting children work with parents, it's a good idea to start them off with plants they can tend themselves. Flowers are always rewarding, herbs can be generous in their production, a favourite food: corn, strawberries, carrots; not only motivates would-be gardeners, it also opens the door to discussions about healthy eating, food miles, water management and soil salinity... For smaller children who might not want to wait for seeds to sprout or join in discussions about desertification but who still want to try out their green thumbs, succulents are a good go-to variety.

School holidays are here. Why not get the family out planting, weeding and harvesting?

If you're interested in gardening, join us at the Macquarie Towns Garden Club. We meet at 2:00 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month at the Windsor Library. Check us out at: www.macquarietownsgardenclub.wordpress.com. If you have suggestions or feedback for me, send it c/o: contribute@hillstohawkesbury.com.au.

We want to know what you've been reading and maybe you'll hear about a great book too. Call 9761 5755. Visit www.thehills.nsw.gov.au
