Bromeliad Spring Show

Spring is the perfect time to check out the varieties and colours available in the bromeliad world. This is the season, when many are displaying their very beautiful flower spikes and intense colour. The best place in Sydney to see hundreds of bromeliads on display is at the Bromeliad Society of Australia's Spring Show being held at the Federation Pavilion, Castle Hill Showground, Showground Road, Castle Hill during September.

This is an opportunity to see and purchase from many local, interstate growers and collectors of exquisite and rare bromeliads. The show includes 2 days of public sales on Saturday, 23 September 9am – 4pm and Sunday, 24 September 10am – 3pm.

Admission is free and there is plenty of parking on site. The Spring Show includes a bromeliad display, 20+ plant sales tables, competitions, literature, information and advice. Please bring a box along for your purchases.

The most popular varieties of bromeliads for home gardens that most recognized are Aechmeas, Guzmanias, Vrieseas, Neoregelias and Tillandsias.

If you are keen to create a tropical garden effect or searching for something suitable to under-plant in shade where nothing grows, then bromeliads are perfect.

They are, very easy to grow, easy care, inexpensive and reward the grower with spectacular, long lasting blooms and ornamental foliage in a variety of brilliant colours. They require very little watering and come in a wide range of sizes from tiny miniatures to the incredible giants.

There are over 3000 known varieties of Bromeliaceae and the first recorded bromeliad was 500 years ago.

Within the last hundred years, bromeliads have become more widely used as ornamental plants. Originally only found in royal botanical gardens or the private collections. Their popularity has grown such that today bromeliads are more available to the home gardener and the bromeliad enthusiast.

Gargantuans of Experience

written by Louise Smithers

Lionel himself at 'Lionel Smith Action Central'

I was warned when I went to interview this accomplished firefighting gentleman of Kenthurst, he is a multi-talented soul! I was still shocked!

Nestled next to 'nearly' National Park in Kenthurst lives Lionel Smith, 17 years retired but doing more than many men half his age. "Do you realise the RFS attends fires over 90% Of NSW?" he greets me, when I mention I have visited the Metropolitan Fire and Rescue Headquarters in the city.

Kenthurst RFB recently realised 75 years of service. Guess who calmly called up the printer of his beloved Mercedes magazine, of which he used to be editor, for advice to layout the 32 page colour history book? "No not PageMaker" they said, so Lionel sat down and learned the industry standard software to compose the entire tome. Remarkable!

"What do you think of Windows 10 he asks?"

Being 'computerate', he is president of the Computer Pals for Seniors group and was instrumental in updating them from hand-me-downs to up to the minute technology. Brilliant! We are a long way from Windows 95 today! (Kids - ask your parents!)

Lionel Smith is one of the amazingly experienced 'head' honchos of the Kenthurst Fire Brigade. With many many years of service under his belt, beginning in Oakville in 1946, he tells of brake drum and hammer alarms passed on smoke signal style by neighbours and farmers, they then turning up to fight fires in bare feet and shorts. "But they had feet so tough they couldn't get burnt!" he jokes. Lionel left there to build his current Kenthurst home and begin life with the lovely Gwen.

In the 1970s pagers revolutionised the communication systems. "No radio!" Today, SMS alerts also summon volunteer firefighters to action. Firefighting has come a long long way.

Cluster subdivision is slowly progressing, but the progress with emergency services with firefighting since Lionel has been on the scene has been phenomenal. As a Group officer and then Deputy Fire Control Officer in the 60s, fires were fought with a no formal training, nor uniforms and very little equipment; with vehicles being converted military blitz 4 x 4 and 2 ½ ton trucks. As Hills Fire Control

with 6-700 volunteers assisting in MVA (motor vehicle accidents) hazard reduction and house fires, he was assisting at the time of the legendary Phil Koperberg, so instrumental in bringing fire funding and control under a coordinated emergency services umbrella.

Extensive research led to Lionel inventing the 'Quenchmaster' foam dispensing system, the size of a book, manufacturing it himself between 1994-8, which transformed the problematical use of foam in tankers. Training is now mandatory and comprehensive and equipment is superbly engineered to make the job quicker, more effective and safe. Upon retiring, Lionel restored a beloved classic Mercedes Coupe, his wife's pride to drive, but deemed too precious to deck the supermarket car park now. His skills have no bottom.

Kenthurst now has evolved from a farming community to a lot of local residents with businesses or who commute to work.

Still zoned 'rural' except for the village itself not too much has changed to the eye. "The people are good," he says. "I have a great community, even in my street, and look forward to the annual Christmas street party."

These days Lionel desists from active frontline firefighting, giving his energies to training, hazard reduction and mentoring new members. They have a lot to learn and look up to!

And what does he want to do next? "Stay alive!" is his retort. "I have no idea how. Keep active, eat good food and don't smoke!"

So when the sleepy rural atmosphere of Kenthurst is rent by a full-blown fire emergency, like the 2002 inferno, these stalwart prepared forces are here to pull disaster back from our lives! Salute these lads and lasses, volunteers, families, fundraisers, all. We are blessed...

Meet Lionel and the Kenthurst or any Rural Fire Brigade any Country Fair day, station Open Days, or you may see them instructing at the school, fundraising at community events or conducting 'Firewise' practical training seminar.

Galston Open Gardens

20th-22nd October 2017.

Spring is in the air, with warm days encouraging some of the blossoms to bloom and daffodils are appearing.

Our Open Gardens Committee and the garden owners who will be opening their gardens are now in full swing getting things organised for the Open Gardens Weekend on 20th-22nd October 2017. This is our major fundraiser for the year and many charities benefit as all profits go to the charities that have been selected by the garden owners and the committee.

We have 8 beautiful gardens, all different with a variety of ideas and displays we can all emulate in our own gardens, big and small. So walking shoes on, cameras at the ready let's look at four of the gardens and head on up to "Highlands" in Arcadia a park styled garden with meandering pathways through woodlands, formal gardens and a large collection of roses, this is the first time the garden has been opened. Still in Arcadia "Paradise Found" has a Balinese hut and rainforest style plantings with a wide range of perennials, rose gardens and shade house.

Going out towards Glenorie to another first timer is "Gleneagle" a modern style garden established from an empty paddock 10 years ago, the living areas are beautifully integrated with the house and there is a lot of garden art to appreciate. As you start to make your way back to Galston and Dural "Boulevard" in Mid Dural was open a few years ago so it will be lovely to see how this garden has continued to evolve, this property has natural rock outcrops, with large sculptures and home to a great collection of native plants as well as a conifer garden and smaller exotics plus the added bonus of a shade house and hot house which contain an interesting collection of unusual plants.

We'll check out the other four next issue. The gardens are open from 9.30-4.30 tickets are $20 which gives entrance to all gardens, or $5 per garden, children under 18 free. For enquiries: Bill Fleming 9653 2394, check our website or email: galstongardenclub@gmail.com

The Dharug and Lower Hawkesbury Historical Society

Invite you to THE HAWKESBURY RIVER: A Social and Natural History afternoon with our Special Guest Speaker Paul Boon

The Dharug and Lower Hawkesbury Historical Society are pleased to welcome on Saturday, 23 rd September, Professor Paul Boon, who now lives in Melbourne but nearly qualifies as an old Hawkesbury boy having spent his childhood and adolescence on the river, and conducted field studies for his BSc(Hons) project on the mangroves at Brooklyn.

Paul a professor in aquatic ecology at Victoria University in Melbourne, realised that there are no single definitive accounts of the Hawkesbury, the longest coastal river in NSW with a long Aboriginal history, that adequately describes the ecology of the river and how it has informed human use and their patterns of settlement, and in turn, how the river has been affected by those settlements and their people.

Please join us as we listen to Paul speak about his recently published book 'The Hawkesbury River: A Social and Natural History'. In his talk, Paul will discuss the geography, geology, hydrology and ecology of the river through to its use by Aboriginal and European people and its role in transport, defence and culture.

This talk will be of value to those who live, visit or work in the region, and those who are interested in Australian environmental history, and professionals in biology, natural resource management and education.

Paul will commence his talk at the Wesleyan Chapel, 6445 Wisemans Ferry Road, Gunderman at 1.30pm after a delectable lunch at midday.

Cost: Members $ 15/ Non-Members $20. All welcome.

Bookings essential: enquiries@dlhhs.org.au or 0405 321 478 (leave a message) by Wednesday, 20 th September.

Come and re-discover the Hawkesbury River with its historical and natural significance.

A landscape worthy of protection and conservation.

Mark Tedeschi AM QC and Senior Crown Prosecutor for NSW will visit the Hawkesbury on Tuesday, 5 September from 6pm to 7:30pm to discuss his new book, Murder at Myall Creek, the most sensational trial of mass murder in Australia's legal history.

Readers of this novel will see prosecutor John Hubert Plunkett's battle to achieve justice for those murdered at Myall Creek; a man who was mired in contradictions and controversy and whose ideology drew him apart from mainstream colonial society.

Hawkesbury Art Fair goes from Strength to Strength

The fourth Hawkesbury Art Fair will be held at Hawkesbury Regional Gallery from Friday, 8 September to Sunday, 8 October 2017, and according to Gallery Director, Kathleen von Witt, it will be the biggest yet.

"The Art Fair is when the Gallery becomes a showcase for the diversity of creative people in this beautiful region," Kath said.

"It's also an opportunity for local artists to sell their work and for residents and visitors to the area to buy original art from the region's best-known and accomplished artists.

"We started out in a small way four years ago, but every year has been an improvement on the last, and we have every reason to believe that 2017 will be bigger and better than ever."

Last year's Art Fair resulted in more than $10,000 worth of sales - a great result according to the Mayor of Hawkesbury, Councillor Mary Lyons-Buckett, who will officially open the 2017 Fair at 6pm on Friday, 8 September.

The event will feature the best traditional and contemporary artists, designers and crafters living and working in the Hawkesbury, as well as guest artists and students from Penrith and Blue Mountains.

All work will be for sale. Hawkesbury Regional Gallery is located at Deerubbin Centre (1st Floor), 300 George St, Windsor NSW. Phone: (02) 4560 4441

Our Beginning...

Piet and Lisa and two daughters aged seven and five came on the Dutch migrant ship "Johann Van Oldenbarnveld" on the 5 September 1950. The ship was used as a troop ship that transported Dutch soldiers to Indonesia. Lisa writes that the ship had no cabins at the time. Men slept in one dormitory whilst women and children were in another. There were not many passengers on board as it was a trial run for the ship but the food and trip was good.

The ship arrived in Sydney mid-November 1950 where the passengers disembarked. After gathering information Lisa and family boarded a train bound for Bathurst where they were placed in a former army base now used as a migrant camp and given five blankets. The food was good and the children Tina and Marlies got special food.

After a little while another shipload of migrants came and Lisa and family were transferred and went to Broadmeadows, Newcastle where they again boarded buses and were taken to a new hostel between Nelson Bay and Shoal Bay. The new hostel had Nissan huts and they were provided with two rooms. There was a little beach which was so nice. The rent was a pound a week for food and accommodation. After a few months or more we rented a little cottage for two pound a week.

Lisa goes on to say that that she had read in a Dutch magazine in 1949 of the CWA so whilst at Shoal Bay she decided to join the organisation along with Ivy an Australian neighbour. The meetings were held in a room in a building owned by the Navy.

"The CWA held a birthday party in the local picture theatre at which a famous Australian soprano was the guest artist. To get to the party, we travelled in a little truck owned by Ivy's brother-in-law. Ivy sat next to the driver, whilst I sat in the open back on a little seat. We had also gone once to the movies the same way. We lived there for two years".

"When Marlies had to go to school we went to Nelson Bay. When we enrolled Marlies we were told that there was a school at the hostel. Piet said that 'we came to mix' and after a few phone calls she was allowed to stay. Luckily some friends from the ship had rented a house at Nelson Bay and they told us that she could stay with them before school"

"Later Piet bought a block of land at Warners Bay and we bought a big American army tent to live in as he was going to build a house for us. He built a floor on stilts and placed the tent on the floor. We had to use steps to get to the floor and enter the tent. We also had to build an outside toilet so that we could get the power connected. Piet built a double brick two bedroom home. That was our beginning"

Lisa Meuffels

The Industrial Treasure Island of Sydney Harbour

Colonial Governors Sir George Gipps (1838-46) and Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy (1846-55) developed Cockatoo Island, the largest in Sydney Harbour, into a valuable boat building and repair centre.

Convicts from Norfolk Island were removed from that settlement in 1840 to begin building on Cockatoo Island. High quality sandstone building blocks were quarried from the northern side of the island with gunpowder charges being used to bring down portions of the cliff. The explosions were eagerly watched by spectators on the Balmain peninsula, many of whom expected the island to disappear beneath the waters of Port Jackson.

Two docks were created on the eastern side of the island and ship-building slipways on the western side during the nineteenth and early twentieth century. The first modern warship was built in 1912 from steel sent from Britain.

You can easily visit Cockatoo Island, a fascinating shipping museum.

World War II created the need for a large workforce which ultimately serviced over a thousand ships. Cockatoo Island became the Commonwealth Naval Dockyard where Navy destroyers, Voyager and Vampire, were built and the T-Class and O-Class submarines were refitted. In 1979, the contract to build HMAS Success was signed and although it was the largest naval vessel built in Australia it was destined to be the last one built on the island. The Commonwealth Government decided to close the dockyard in 1992 with much of the machinery sold and buildings and wharves demolished. The Sydney Harbour Federation Trust now administers the island and invites you to come and visit by catching a Sydney Ferry from Circular Quay.

The Best Ever Arcadian Quilters Biennial Show

9th Saturday - 10th September Sunday - 9:00am to 3:30pm

The biennial show for the Arcadian Quilters group is being held in the Galston Community Hall, 37 Arcadia Road Galston.

There will be quilts on show covering every aspect of quilting, embellishment by embroidery, needle turned appliqué, etc etc. The show is going to be the best ever. Over the last two years we have done workshops with notable Quilters from the Quilters Guild and these quilts will be also in the exhibition.

We also have quilts for sale at very reasonable prices. This is because we were given a wonderful collection of fabrics. These have been made by the group at various working bees over the last two years. There is something for every one. Also in this collection is a variety of Christmas themed quilts and quilts suitable for children.

There will be members and trader's stalls where you will find quilt patterns, kits, fabrics and tools for sale. Light refreshments will be available. Disabled access available. Entry $5.00, children free. Plenty of free parking. Our show is generously sponsored by the Bendigo Bank Galston.

The photo above has been made from men's shirting fabrics and is just one of the many quilts in the show. For further information please ring Carole 9894 7749.

Federal Member for Berowra

Hon Julian Leeser MP

Selfless Acts in our Community

The decision of Courtney Cameron of the Dural Brigade of the Rural Fire Service to cut her hair to raise money in support of her friend and fellow RFS member Tim Maffey is a wonderful demonstration of the incredible sense of community in Berowra. I was pleased to support her efforts over the weekend and witness the fine work of Scissor and Comb Connection, Galston. You can donate to the cause at <http://nsw.cancercouncilfundraising.org.au/courtneycameron>.

Last month, I celebrated Christmas in July with the Rural Fire Service and the local Sackville North community. I will join around 100 local residents for the Arcadian Community Dinner this weekend.

It was an honour to speak to the congregations of Saint Luke's Anglican Church at Hornsby Heights, the Turrumurra Gurudwara, the Iman Hassan Centre at Annangrove and the Glenorie Mission Church in Berowra in recent weeks and to serve dinner at the Hornsby Cathedral Catholic Parish community dinner. These occasions provided a reminder of the enduring values of faith, service and humility that are so prevalent in our community.

Telecommunications and the NBN

A new mobile phone tower serving Sackville North and the surrounding suburbs was funded through the Federal Government's Mobile Black Spot Program. In the last Parliamentary session I asked the Minister for Urban Infrastructure when local residents could expect the tower to be delivered. He advised construction is expected to commence later this year. Once complete, this tower will deliver better mobile coverage and improved safety for local residents.

The Minister for Communications, Senator the Hon Mitch Fifield, inspected progress on the roll out of the NBN in Cherrybrook last month. 20 per cent of homes in our electorate are currently ready for service and work is well underway to have the rest of Berowra connected by the end of 2020.

I received a fantastic response to our first community forum on the National Broadband Network (NBN) and Telstra last month. I will host a second forum at the Dural Country Club on 23 August 2017 from 6-8pm. This is a great opportunity to ask questions and hear directly from representatives from these organisations. If you would like to attend, please RSVP to my office on 9980 1822.

Aussie's German Diesels

Australian Pump has announced a major move to incorporate Hatz diesel engine drive pumps in their product range. Hatz is considered to be pre-eminent in the design and manufacture of high quality air cooled diesel engines!

The arrangement between Hatz Australia and Australian Pump is a new development. It's based on a commitment by both parties to cooperate to produce what amounts to the best portable, diesel powered, high pressure fire pump in the world.

"We coupled an Aussie Fire Chief Pump to a Hatz 1B20 air-cooled diesel engine and we were impressed by the excellent results we got on the test rig" said Aussie Pumps Brad Farrugia. "The engine held its revs even when we applied the maximum load to the pump!" he said.

Hatz diesels offer some real advantages for users. They include auto-decompression as a standard feature to make even recoil starting easy. The engines low compression rate also facilitates easy cold starts!

The Aussie Fire Chief delivers more water at high pressure than others, providing real capability and fuel savings for users. At 3600 rpm the pump will produce 70 metre head and, like all Aussie Quik Prime pumps, it will prime from a 7.6 metre vertical lift.

"We are very happy with the perfect matching of the pump hydraulics to the engine's torque characteristics. The unit produces a great result for users," said Farrugia. "Having the full technical support of Hatz Australia is also a big advantage" he said.

Sami Almogawish, managing director of Hatz Australia was also delighted with the outcomes. Australian Pump's major commitment to Hatz is an endorsement of their attitude of producing a better product/quality ratio than any competitor.

"We love working Aussie because they are so positive and their quality standards match ours at the Hatz engine factory in Germany" he said.

Further information of the new Hatz powered Fire Chief is available from Australian Pump Industries and authorised distributors throughout Australia.

Your Health is your Wealth: Oral Health

What is oral health?

Oral health is multifaceted and includes the ability to speak, smile, smell, taste, touch, chew, swallow, and convey a range of emotions through facial expressions with confidence and without pain, discomfort, and disease of the craniofacial complex.

On the whole, oral health has improved in Australia over recent decades, particularly in response to fluoride being added to water supplies from the 1950s. Recent trends, however, suggest that changes in diet and behaviour—such as increased consumption of bottled water, sports drinks and soft drinks—may be having some negative impacts on oral health.

What is the condition of our teeth?

Poor childhood oral health is a strong predictor of poor adult oral health. After falling steadily since the 1970s, rates of tooth decay in children slowly rose from the late 1990s onwards

Data from examination of children's teeth at public dental clinics in 6 Australian states and territories showed that:

- More than half of children aged 6 had experienced decay in their baby teeth
- Almost half of children aged 12 had experienced decay in their permanent teeth
- On average, every child aged 15 had at least 1 filled permanent tooth, and at least 1 other with untreated decay.

Oral care for adults

- Use a small, soft toothbrush to clean your teeth and gums morning and night to remove plaque
- Brush your teeth and gums
- Use adult fluoride toothpaste. After brushing, spit the toothpaste out but don't rinse.
- Thorough brushing with either a manual or electric toothbrush should take around two minutes.
- Replace your toothbrush every three months.
- Choose healthy snacks between meals such as fruit, vegetables, nuts, reduced salt crackers and reduced fat dairy foods such as plain yoghurt and cheese.
- Limit soft drinks, energy drinks, cordial and juices.
- Plain tap water is the best drink for your teeth.
- Try chewing sugar free gum between meals to stimulate saliva, which will help protect teeth from tooth decay.
- Avoid drinking too much coffee.
- Antibacterial mouthwashes (available from your Chemist) may also help fight plaque and bacteria. Talk to your dentist first to see if mouthwash is right for you.
- Have regular dental check-ups.
- If you are a smoker, think about cutting down or quitting and give your teeth and gums a healthy chance.

Oral care during pregnancy

- You may be more susceptible to gum problems (bleeding and tenderness). Gently brush your gums when you brush your teeth.

- If you gag when brushing, try later in the morning when the gag reflex may not be as strong.
- A smaller brush might be helpful for the back teeth.
- You may experience pregnancy sickness or gastric reflux – rinse your mouth with water after vomiting.
- Try not to brush your teeth for 30 minutes after vomiting – this will give the enamel time to recover from the acid attack.
- Visit your dentist in early pregnancy to have your teeth and gums checked. Don't forget to mention you're pregnant.
- There is no truth to the old wives tale that 'a tooth is lost with every pregnancy'.
- Your baby's teeth start developing in the first three months of pregnancy.
- Once your baby is born, decay causing germs may be transferred from mother to child. Avoid sharing spoons with your child. Information is available to give your child's teeth a healthy start

Should I use mouth wash before or after I brush my teeth?

If you brush your teeth with a fluoride toothpaste, don't use a mouth rinse afterward because it will wash away the concentrated fluoride in the toothpaste left on your teeth. According to the American Dental Association, it doesn't matter whether you use mouthwash before or after brushing. Both are equally effective.

Is it better to floss before or after brushing?

The sequence makes no difference as long as you do a thorough job. Brushing and flossing is the best way to remove decay-causing plaque from your teeth and help maintain optimal oral health. Choose a toothbrush that feels comfortable in your hand and in your mouth, and use it twice a day. Flossing could be done easily now by using water pressure flosser.

Next issue I will talk about halitosis (bad breath)

God bless,

WHY ADVERTISE IN THE HILLS TO HAWKESBURY LIVING?

- Over 10,000 magazines are picked up by local consumers by choice from stands in local shopping centres, clubs and petrol stations.
- The TV guide is eagerly sought after and in high demand with our pick up rate constantly exceeding 99%.
- A full page ad costs less than printing 10,000 flyers and distribution is free. Rather than being seen as junk mail, it is picked up to be viewed daily.
- With the TV Guide, your ad will be seen again and again over the 16 day period over which the magazine is designed to be kept.
- Value for money, our display advertisements cost less than half of the average cost of other local publications which are viewed once only.
- Local readers support the local advertisers and appreciate and support a local free TV guide.
